

FOUR PEOPLE HURT IN WRECK OF AUTO

Machine Turns Completely Over
East of Rushville and Occupants
Are Held for Drunkenness

DALE SMILEY HURT WORST

Accused of Driving Automobile
While Under the Influence of Intoxicating Liquor

Four Connersville people, two men and two women, figured in an automobile wreck, just east of Rushville Wednesday afternoon about four o'clock, and all of them are under arrest, charged with drunkenness.

Two of them were badly hurt, and the machine was damaged to a great extent, with the top being smashed and the car broken in several places.

The persons gave their names as Dale Smiley and Frank Perkins and Carrie Pifer and Ethel Wandell. Smiley owned the car, according to the officers, and he also is held on another charge of driving a machine while under the influence of liquor.

The charges were preferred by Prosecutor Ketchum in city court. Smiley was removed to the Dr. Sexton hospital for an examination, and later removed to the home of a relative in this city.

The other three persons were taken into custody by Sheriff Hunt and Patrolman Havens who were called to the scene of the accident. The Pifer woman was badly injured about the head, suffered a gash that required three stitches to close the wound. She also was badly bruised but no bones were broken. The other two persons were bruised, but not injured to any great extent.

The three were placed in jail by the officers. They had not been arraigned in court early this afternoon as the Pifer woman was not able to be moved from the jail, and Smiley also was not able to appear.

The four persons were enroute to Connersville, according to the officers. The machine was making the dip in the road at the old fair grounds, just east of here, when the driver lost control, and the machine went sideways in the road, and turned over once. When stopped, the machine was right side up, and turned completely around, according to the officers.

TWO BURN TO DEATH IN EVANSVILLE FACTORY FIRE

Another Seriously Burned While
Trying to Rescue Victims From
Veneer Company's Plant

GARY FACTORY IS WRECKED

(By United Press)

Evansville, Ind., Feb. 5—Two men were burned to death early today and another was seriously burned while trying to rescue them when the drying plant of the Evansville Veneer Company burned to the ground.

The dead: Charles Wilder, 45, and John Peacock, 42.

The flames, feeding on the tinder-like veneering and shavings, spread like a flash through the big room in which 17 men of the night force were at work.

George Vandever, hearing the cries of the two trapped men, turned back to their aid. He was immediately enveloped by flames that seared his face and fired his clothing. He was rescued through a window by fellow working men.

Loss was estimated at $75,000.

Gary, Ind., Feb. 5—The spark from a dynamo is believed to be the cause of a terrific powder explosion which wrecked the mixing mill of the Victor Photo Specialty Company here late yesterday. F. E. Bennett, foreman of the flash light powder mixing mill, was burned severely but will recover, physicians say.

Other parts of the plant were unharmed save the windows, which were all broken. The damage was placed at $3,000.

Three years ago the entire plant was destroyed by a similar explosion.

TOWNSHIP ASSESSORS MEET

Addressed by Walter Bridges of
State Tax Commission

A meeting with the township assessors and their deputies was held Wednesday at the office of Earl Priest, county assessor, at which time the assessing plans were discussed.

Each township assessor, excepting Posey and Washington, and their deputies were present for the session and a talk was made by Walter Bridges, district representative for the state tax board. He also answered questions, and a discussion was held concerning the manner in which the spring assessments will be made, commencing March 1.

TELLS LOBBYISTS THEY MUST STAY OUT

Lieut. Gov. VanOrman Warns Members of "Third House" They Are
Interfering With Legislators

UTILITY BILL IS PASSED

Senate Would Require Utilities to Appeal to State Courts Instead of
Federal Court

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 5—Lieut. Governor VanOrman today told lobbyists in the senate to "get out and stay out."

He issued a final order to senate door-keepers to bar lobbyists from the floor of the senate, saying that "if they don't have the conscience to stay away we will keep them out."

VanOrman declared the lobbyists had been "bothering the senators and interfering in the affairs of the legislators."

The senate today passed the Barker bill requiring public utilities to appeal their rate cases to state courts. The bill had failed to pass a few days ago because it lacked a constitutional majority. The vote for passage today however was 30 to 9.

The bill would prevent appeals of utilities on rate orders by the public service commission direct to the federal court.

The eugenical sterilization bill was sent back to the committee for minor amendments.

By a vote of 64 to 25 the house accepted a minority report of the education committee favoring passage of the Cooper bill prohibiting the wearing of any distinctive religious garb by school teachers.

The argument which came up when the utility bill was first placed on passage that it was unconstitutional because utilities have a right to appeal on rates that are confiscatory was parried by Senator Barker, of Thornton, sponsor of the measure. He declared that the plea by utilities that rates are confiscatory were merely a "smoke screen."

He said the utilities take advantage of the fact that the court cannot go into the case as deeply as the commission and that their clever attorneys find technicalities on which to win their cases.

A bill introduced in the house by Representative Marden of Logansport would require the teaching of the same courses of study in parochial schools as taught in the public schools in the state.

It provides for regular inspection by officials of the state department of public instruction to see that the parochial schools complied.

By a vote of 64 to 25 the house passed the bill, previously killed in the senate prohibiting school teachers from wearing any distinctive garb.

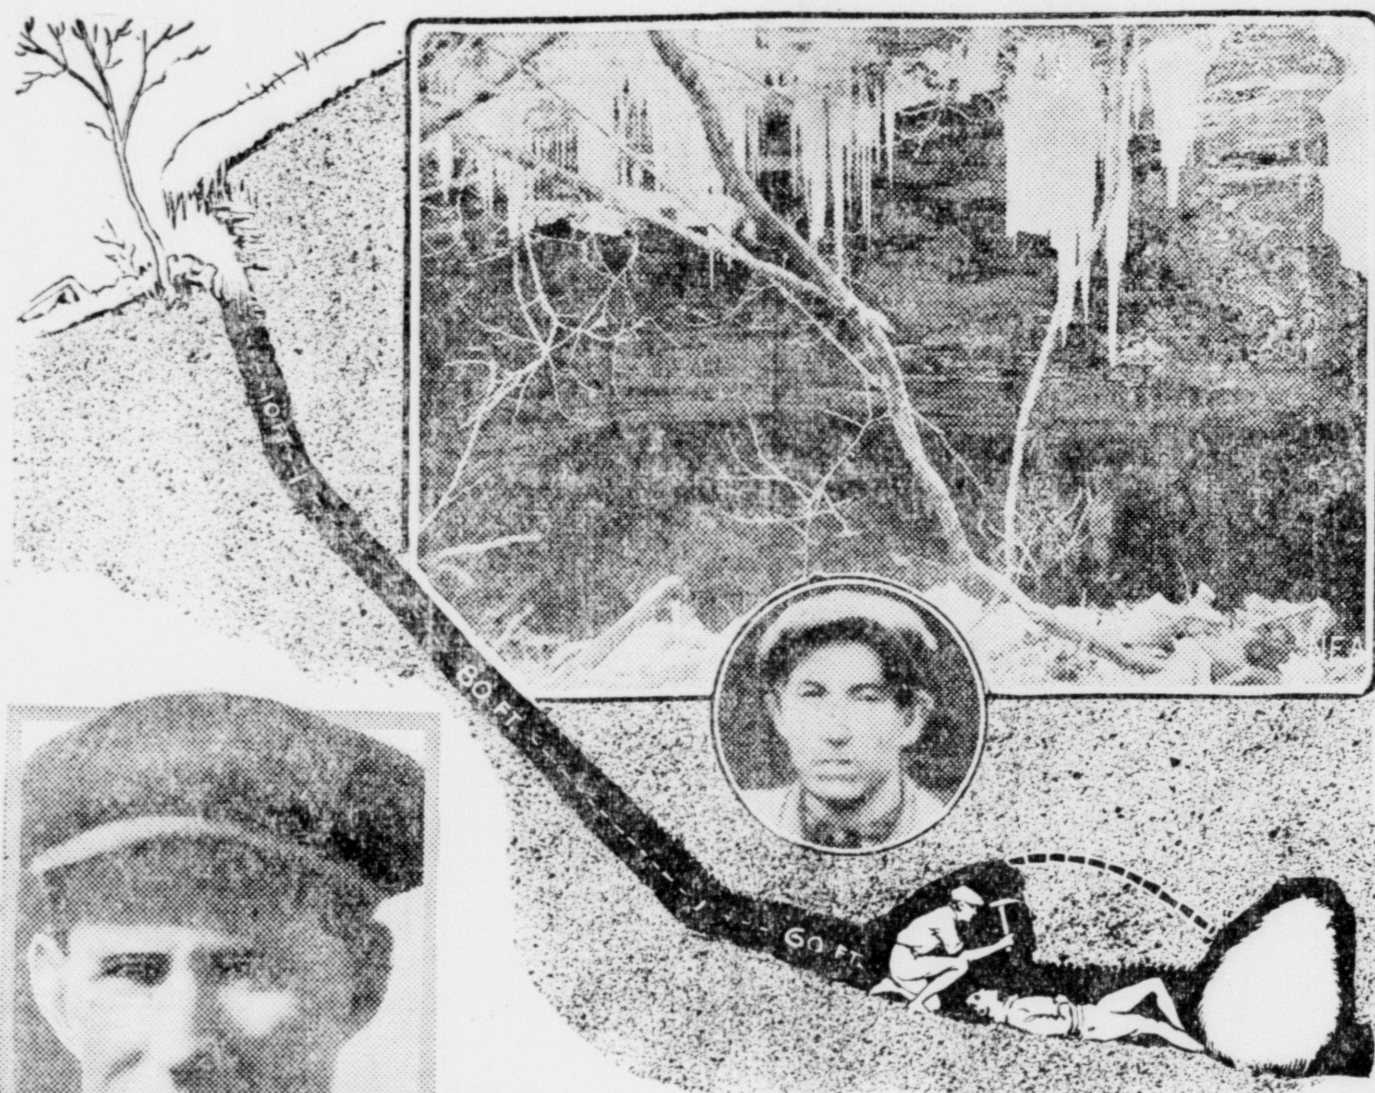

BURNS FATAL TO CHILD

Bloomfield, Ind., Feb. 4—Burns received when he fell into a tub of boiling water caused the death of Charles Ogg, 18-months-old son of Robert Ogg. The tub of water was being used by the mother to scrub the floors.

HITS TRAIN HEAD ON LIVES

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 5—Caught on a crossing by two trains going in opposite directions, Alex Voelker, 26, today swerved his auto down the track toward one of the trains. The auto climbed the engine's cowcatcher and was wrecked, but Voelker escaped uninjured.

Where Cave Explorer Is Trapped

Floyd Collins, left, trapped in Sand Cave, near Cave City, Ky., is reported today to be barely alive, after being held prisoner in the cave since last Friday morning. The last person reported leaving the underground prison said Collins was in a subconscious condition. Above is entrance to the cave and the diagram shows how Collins is trapped. Dotted line is where rescuers had hoped to clear space to free Collins until a new cavern Thursday thwarted them. Small inset is Jewel Estes, 17, who discovered Collins' plight.

Workmen Prepare to Sink New Shaft to Reach Entombed Man

Last Man Coming From Cave Today
Reports Floyd Collins, Prisoner
Since Last Friday Is Barely Alive.
Dead or Alive. He Will Be Brought
From Underground Prison, Ken-
tucky Officials Pledge

(By United Press)

Cave City, Ky., Feb. 5—"Ask the country to pray for my boy" Lee Collins, father of Floyd Collins, entombed explorer, begged today.

"I know the Lord is able to give my boy the strength to live until the new shaft reaches him."

Workmen were busy preparing to sink the new shaft in a final effort to reach Collins.

It was not known early this afternoon whether he was dead or alive, the last man coming from the cave saying that the victim was barely conscious.

Dead or alive, Collins will be taken from Sand Cave where he has been imprisoned more than 140 hours. Kentucky officials have pledged itself to bring him out.

But even with the resources of his state and the federal government marshalled in his behalf, Collins probably will perish.

The slimy, frigid tunnel through which men burrowed toward the victim has swollen shut. The bulging and is freezing.

Roy Hyde, expert miner returning from the last plunge into the depths, reeled into the open air to report: "That's my last trip. I'd never come out alive if I tried it again. I couldn't even get my hand through the opening that is left."

The only means of reaching Collins now would be through a new shaft. This must be cut directly to the spot where Collins lies. Engineers have abandoned a plan to dig through to the walls of a giant vault beyond Collins. From the point they would have emerged, it would have been necessary to scale a forty foot precipice, pitch the jailer boulder into the void and then carry Collins out. This plan is believed impractical.

The cast is as follows: Jones, a hymn book salesman, Franklin Miller; Ebenezer Goodly, professor of anatomy, Lamoine Perkins; Mrs. Goodly, who knows how to care for a husband, Virginia Lucas; Minerva, who worries about Darwin and all his monkey business, Gladys Newman; Marjorie, very much in love, Ruth Chadwick; Richard Heatherly, "a Model Young Man", William Beher; Cossy, who longs to be in San Francisco, Mary F. Clore; Rev. Antony Goodly, D. D. Hartwell Coons; Alvina Starlight, who wonders if she has changed in forty years, Virginia Arand; Helma, a Swedish maid, Ruth Johnson; Bigbee, who thinks he's an Indian, Wilbur Wolters; Holder, who "enters in the name of the law," Wilbur Wolters; Fuller, superintendent of the sanatorium, Donnell Power.

Louise Pitman, Mary Maud Rebd, Donald Dean and Allen Ellison are assisting with staging and properties.

Farrell Conover, business manager, reports a splendid ticket sale. Representatives of the cast with Miss Hamrick visited every room in the city this afternoon, to solicit the patronage of the elementary students who proved ardent boosters of last year's play.

JACKSON STUDIES STATE BUDGET BILL

Measure Providing for $46,078,925
Appropriation is Placed Before
The Governor

FEW CHANGES EXPECTED

For First Time in State History, it
Proposes to Place all Departments
Under Budget

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 5—Governor Jackson today studied the $46,078,925 budget bill for expenses of state departments and institutions during the next two fiscal years.

The bill was placed before the governor late yesterday by the legislative budget advisory committee and budget officials late yesterday after weeks of toil in whittling down the appropriation requests of the departments and institutions.

Governor Jackson expected to transmit the bill to the legislature with his recommendations before adjournment is taken for the week end.

Since he was in frequent conference with drafters of the bill while it was being prepared, it was regarded as certain that he will send it on to the legislature practically unchanged.

For the first time in the history of state finances, the bill proposes to place all departments and institutions including the state colleges and normal schools, under budget control.

Nearly $15,000,000 were slashed from the departmental and institutional requests to bring the figure down to $46,078,925 for the two years.

Increases granted some departments coming under budget control for the first time practically balance a $1,000,000 reduction on items which were included in the budget bill of 1923.

A continuance of the present tax rate of twenty-eight cents is anticipated on the basis of the new budget bill.

In making drastic slashes in budget requests, the committee whittled the highway commission figures from $30,000,000 to $22,000,000, cut the building request of the state reformatory from $1,000,000 to $256,000, and allowed the state colleges $925,000 of the $5,000,000 they had requested for new buildings.

The bill specifies that all collections from the gasoline tax and the auto license fees shall go to the highway commission for road construction and maintenance.

If the revenue from these sources is more than estimated in the budget bill, the commission is authorized to

IN THICK OF THE CHINESE WAR

Lieut. Weldon Brann Writes That U.
S. Troops Have Close Calls

Weldon Brann, son of O. C. Brann of this city and a first lieutenant in the United States Army, has had some thrilling experiences in China, according to word received here in a letter from him.

Lieut. Brann, who is stationed at Tientsin, and writes that the American troops have had some close calls, but have always escaped. The civil war has not been very serious this spring, he stated, but a fresh outbreak is expected this spring.

Due to poor mail service, very few letters are received from the former Rushville boy. Two letters written to him previous to the time he mailed the letter just reaching Rushville, had not been received when he wrote.

BASEMENT OF M. E. CHURCH RANSACKED

Intruder Goes Through Drawers and
Moves Dishes, Evidently in Search of Money

NOTHING OF VALUE TAKEN

Stranger Found in Church Early in
Evening, Who Was Ordered Away,
Probably Returned

A bold robber ransacked the basement of the St. Paul's M. E. church Fifth and Morgan streets, sometime Tuesday night, it was disclosed today, and the robbery marked the second time within the same evening that the church was entered, probably by the same person.

The robber was discovered in the church earlier in the evening, and told to leave, after he had made an excuse that he had dropped in the basement window to keep warm for the night. He was told to leave by George Wiltse, who with his wife had gone to the church about seven o'clock Tuesday evening.

The young man left after he had been questioned by Mr. Wiltse, but Wednesday it was discovered that he had returned or else some other person had entered the church during the same night, and ransacked the same night, and ransacked money that was thought to have been hidden there.

One of the women's organizations of the church had met in the church Tuesday afternoon, and that evening about seven o'clock, Mrs. Wiltse remembered that she had not locked the silverware drawer in the new buffet in the basement.

She and Mr. Wiltse went to the church. Mr. Wiltse remained upstairs, while she went down the stairs. She locked the silverware drawer, and observed a man lying on the floor, beneath a basement window.

Mrs. Wiltse went up stairs and summoned Mr. Wiltse, who went to the place where the man was concealed, and talked to him. The fellow was described as being a young man light hair, and fairly well dressed but had a dirty face. He told Mr. Wiltse that he had come in from Louisville, and that he lived in Indianapolis. He wanted a warm place to spend the night, and after Mr. Wiltse had talked to him for several minutes, he told him that the church was not a hotel, and that he had better leave.

Mr. Wiltse suggested that he go to the C. I. & W. railroad, a block south, and wait for a train that would take him to Indianapolis. The man left, and Mr. Wiltse locked the basement window, through which he had gained entrance.

On Wednesday Mr. Wiltse went to the church and discovered the basement had been ransacked. The drawer in which the silverware was kept had been pried open, and the lock ruined, as well as the fine woodwork on the buffet.

Dishes had been removed from their stacks, and it was evident that the person was looking behind them for hidden money. Nothing was missed.

Another window in the basement was unlocked, and it is believed that the robber came in by this window, or else from one of the larger church windows which might have been left unfastened.

It is the belief that the robber saw

DEPUTY COLLECTOR TO AID TAXPAYERS

Harry E. Roysse Will be at Court House Next Week to Assist in income Tax Matters

IN THE COUNTY FIVE DAYS

Roysse Will be at Carthage Thursday,
Feb. 12, and Milroy, Feb. 13—
New Law is Explained

Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue Harry E. Roysse will be at the court house in Rushville on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 9, 10 and 11 to assist any who desire assistance in making current income tax returns and to answer such questions as may be asked concerning the provisions of the new Revenue Law. He will be at Carthage on Thursday, Feb. 12, and at Milroy on Friday, Feb. 13, for the same purpose.

Under the Revenue Act of 1924 every unmarried person, whether entitled to the status of "Head of a family" or not, who has a net income of $1000 is required to file a return although allowable exemptions and credits for dependents may relieve him from any liability to pay tax.

Every married person, who was married during the entire year of 1924 and living with husband or wife, who had a net income of $2500 or more is required to file a return although his allowable exemptions and credit for dependents may relieve him from liability to pay tax and every person, whatever his status, who has a gross income of $5000 or more and regardless of what may be his net income, is required to file a return.

Every corporation and partnership regardless of the amount of income is required to file a return although allowable exemptions and deductions may relieve of the liability to pay any tax.

There are some new provisions in the Act of 1924 that have not appeared in the law of previous years. Chief among these is the provision providing for a reduction of 25 per cent of the amount of the tax on earned incomes up to a limit of $10,000.00. All incomes, whether actually earned or not, of $5,000.00 or less are rated as earned incomes under the law.

The year 1924 was the first in which any provision was made for dividing the exemption allowed a married person or head of a family by reason of a change in status during the year. Under the new law this is now pro-rated. A head of family is an unmarried person who maintains a household for one or more persons closely related to him by blood or marriage and living in the same house with him. This per-

DEPAUW CHOIR TO APPEAR IN CONCERT FRIDAY NIGHT

Widely Known Musical Organization
Brought to Rushville by St.
Paul's M. E. Church Choir

HEARD HERE FEW YEARS AGO

The DePauw university choir, widely known musical organization, will appear in a concert at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church Friday evening at eight o'clock under the auspices of the St. Paul's church choir.

This organization gave a concert in Rushville a few years ago when a music conference was held by Methodist churches of the Connersville district, and created a very favorable impression. The choir is composed of twenty voices, violinist, cellist, pianist and organist. Robert G. McCutcheon, dean of music at DePauw is conductor.

The program announced for the concert here is as follows:

Tis Thy Wedding Morning, from "Rose Maiden", Cowan—The University Choir.

Bereave from "Joelwyn", Godard—The University Choir, Miss Welch, Miss Green, and Miss Baum.

A Spring Song, Pinsuti: At Dawn-ing, Cadman—The University Choir.

By the Brook, Boisdreffe—Miss

ARLINGTON INSTITUTE ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

O. N. Brown Chosen at Closing Session Wednesday Which is Attended by 100 People

PRIZE AWARDS ARE MADE

Officers for next year's meeting were elected at the closing session of the Posey township farmers' institute in Arlington, Wednesday afternoon, with O. N. Brown chosen as president; Everett Hester, vice president, and Carl Dearing, secretary. Mrs. A. W. Rigsbee was elected president of the ladies' department.

O. J. Miller retired as president; Warren Nelson as vice president and A. W. Rigsbee as secretary. Mrs. Rowland Earnest was head of the ladies' department this year.

About one hundred persons were in attendance at the institute Wednesday and four very pleasing and worth-while addresses were delivered by Mrs. John W. Spindler of Grabbill, Ind., and Wm. H. Senour of Brookville. A dinner was served at the noon hour in the basement of the M. E. church, where the institute was held.

A large list of prizes, consisting of cash and merchandise offered by Rushville merchants, were awarded at the close of the afternoon session. There were four classes in the corn show for men, and two for boys and a potato class and a boys' corn judging contest. Prizes were also given in the ladies department for the best culinary and for the best fancy work shown by school girls.

SIX BELIEVED TRAPPED
Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 5—Six men were believed trapped in the Modern Grinder Company, four story building here, which was being swept by flames this afternoon. Three alarms were turned in and practically every bit of the fire fighting apparatus in the city was hurried to the scene. The cause of the fire is unknown. The men believed trapped are handicapped war veterans working on the third floor of the plant, officials said.

Why Death?

Prof. M. P. Guyer of the University of Wisconsin believes that death can be averted. He bases his belief on the fact that he has been able to keep cells and tissues of a human body alive for an indefinite period. He uses a chemical solution containing lithium chloride. Death, he says, results from parasitic accumulations in human cells and can be corrected by rejuvenating the tissues.

Tardiness Paid

Chief of Police Dan O'Brien of San Francisco and his captains have discovered it sometimes pays to be late. They were scheduled to meet in the chief's office at 10 a. m. But none got there until 10:20. At 10:27 a bomb exploded in a telephone booth, just 20 feet away from O'Brien's office in the Hall of Justice. A two-foot hole was blown in a stone wall and the chief's rooms and corridors were littered with wreckage.

son need not be dependent for support upon the person taking the status of head of a family but must live in the same house and be closely related by blood or marriage.

Income received by a minor child living at home must be included in the return of one of the parents. Credit for dependents is allowable only for persons under 18 years of age or who are physically or mentally defective. Such dependents need not be living in the same household with the taxpayer.

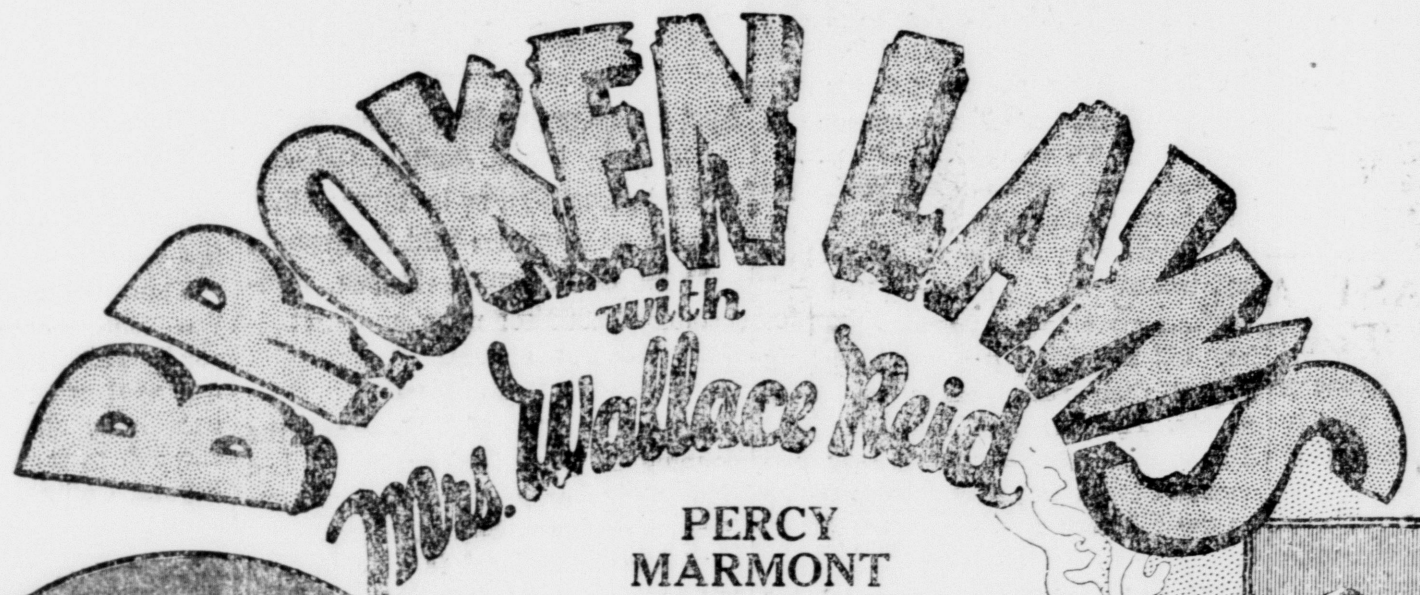

Under the revenue act there is no age limit to the requirement to file a return. Ordinarily person under legal age is not required to file a return if the income received by such person is reported by a parent in the return of the parent. However, any person of whatever age, who receives an income of $1000, if unmarried must file a return or a return must be filed for him by parent, guardian, or other person chargeable with the responsibility of acting for such person.

spend the excess amounts for additional roads.

A total appropriation of $7,037,000 is recommended for the colleges and normals for the next two years in place of the present 5 cent school tax levy.

The annual recommendation for each institution gives Indiana and Purdue universities $1,050,000 each, the Terre Haute normal $305,000 and the Muncie normal $267,500.

Indiana was allowed $325,000 for a new library, while Purdue was given $150,000 for a new horticultural building and $200,000 for a new engineering building under the recommendations of the bill.

The Terre Haute normal's building requests were denied but an increase of $50,000 in the appropriation for operating expense was recommended.

The bill includes an item of $250,000 for a new library and assembly hall at the Muncie normal.

A request of the Riley Memorial Hospital for $500,000 for new buildings was not allowed.

The southern hospital for the insane at Evansville is recommended to receive $300,000 for new buildings while the item of $500,000 for the buildings for the central hospital for the insane at Indianapolis was practically eliminated.

The bill does not provide for a single salary increase for state officials or employees.

One of the items lopped off was the request of Dr. H. N. Sherwood, superintendent of public instruction for a pay boost from $5,000 to $7,500 a year.

One of the hottest fights of the present session is anticipated over the provision of the bill to bring the state normals and universities under the budget control.

BIRTHS

A baby girl was born to the wife of Weldon Brann, son of O. C. Brann of this city, in Tientsin, China, on November 25, 1924, according to a letter just received here. The baby was named Dorothy Ballard. Mrs. Brann was a Clarksville, Texas, girl.

A baby girl weighing seven and one-half pounds has been born to the wife of Joe Rogers at their home in North Sexton street.

Suits on Account and to Replevin Before Squire Stech

Two complaints have been filed in Justice Stech's court, one being on an account, and the other a suit to replevin. The account suit was filed by Derby Green against Russel Jordan, the demand being for $15. The case has been set for trial February 6.

In the complaint to replevin, the plaintiff is the Spiegel, May, Stern and Company and the defendant is Joe Rogers. The action alleges that the defendant purchased a rug from plaintiff, and has failed to make the necessary payments. The plaintiff is seeking to get possession of the rug.

ECHOES FROM THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

By United Press

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 5—Control of the Nancy Hanks Lincoln burial ground, the Tippecanoe battle ground, capital square, the old capitol building at Corydon and the state land department of the auditor's office would be transferred to the conservation commission under the provisions of a bill presented in the legislature by Representative Farrell, of Hartford City.

Appropriations now available for the separate units would be available for the commission in the disposition of its other duties under provisions of the bill.

Now comes the beauty trust. Practitioners in this high art are known as "cosmetologists" and they are going to have to step up and get themselves examined once in a while if a bill introduced in the house by Representative Barlow of Plainfield becomes a law.

The bill seeks to create a state board of cosmetology examiners to license all persons aspiring to administer beauty in large doses.

A bill requiring the auditor of state to audit the books of the state board of accounts annually is being drafted for presentation to the legislature, it was learned today.

The bill would place the audit of the board's books within the province of the auditor's department.

At present the accounts board employs outside accountants to make a check of its books.

The state constabulary bill favored by the Indiana Bankers' Association was before the legislature today. It was introduced in the house of Representative Wright of Lynn. The bill provides for the creation of a state department of police, under control of a commission of three members who would serve without salary.

A state police commissioner to be appointed by the governor with a salary of $5,000 is also provided.

The constabulary force would consist of about one hundred men. The bill is drafted after the Pennsylvania and New York constabulary laws and provides that the state shall be divided into patrol districts which would be policed by a complete unit of the constabulary with lieutenants and other officers.

SUBDUED BY POLICE

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 5—Four policemen were required to subdue John Cready, 23, when he went on a rampage at his home here today. Officers said he struck his mother to the floor and knocked two of her teeth out before they arrived.

Raymond J. Bischoff made too much money for investors in his brokerage office. Federal officers investigated and now Bischoff is on his way from California to Chicago to answer to charges of operating a "con" game. He is charged with robbing 6500 persons out of $3,000,000 in an oil swindle.

Gets Mama

Constance Ellen Blair has a regular "mama" now. A few weeks ago she was just a little girl whom nobody seemed to want. Her father had left her after the death of her real mother. But Mrs. John T. Agar, wife of the millionaire packer, thought Constance "the most lovable child in the world," so the court awarded her in legal adoption to her new mother.

The Only Safe Trust:—Some trust in chariots, and some in horses; but we will remember the name of the Lord our God. Psalm 20:7.

Pride in City Plant

Rushville people read with considerable pride the account of the development of the Rushville water and light plant during the past 33 years, in the Daily Republican Wednesday evening.

They noted that the plant had an income of $106,000 last year and that during the past year and a half $46,000 had been taken out of the earnings to increase the capacity and improve the plant, without a cent of cost to the taxpayers of the city.

The municipal plant has been subjected to considerable adverse criticism in the past, but those who will take the trouble to investigate conditions elsewhere will find that Rushville water and light patrons are faring better than in the average city where this service is provided by a private corporation.

It is surprising to find the number of people who still labor under the delusion that they pay taxes to support the water and light plant. While it is true that the plant is credited with a legitimate sum for furnishing street lights and water service for fire protection, no tax money goes into the water light fund for its maintenance.

The fact that all but nineteen houses in Rushville are using city water and that ninety-two percent of the houses in the city are wired for electricity is very good evidence that the plant has been giving satisfactory service.

If the councilmen who started the city light plant 33 years ago had not been steadfast in their belief that the people would profit from such an investment, Rushville would probably now be in the condition of many other cities that are fighting constant attempts to increase utility rates.

The founders of the plant had vision enough to see its value and courage enough to stand by their convictions.

A CAUSE OF WOMEN'S ILLS

WOMEN OFTEN THINK THEY HAVE HEART TROUBLE, INDIGESTION, NERVOUS PROSTRATION, ETC., WHEN IT'S SIMPLY IRON STARVATION OF THE BLOOD.

Many women believe they are weak and nervous as a result of age, worry and overwork; they think that their disturbed digestion, headaches, heart palpitation, shortness of breath, pains across the back, etc., are due to some serious disease instead of the real cause—iron starvation of the blood. This is proven by the fact that when many of these same women take organic iron for while all their alarming symptoms quickly disappear and they become strong, robust and healthy. Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change food into living cells and tissue. Without it nothing you eat does you the proper amount of good—your blood is starved. If you are not strong and well do not wait until you go all to pieces and collapse in a state of nervous prostration, but take some organic iron—Nuxated Iron—at once. But be sure it's organic iron and not metallic iron which people usually take and which is made merely by the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron. Organic NUXATED IRON is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples and it often increases the bodily and mental vigor of weak, worn-out women in two weeks' time.

Beware of substitutes. Look for the word "Nuxated" on every package and the letters N.I. on every tablet. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain perfectly satisfactory results from all drugs.

Hard Facts on Roads

After a test covering five years, automotive engineers are convinced that with gasoline at 20 cents a gallon, it costs three-fourths of a cent more per ton mile to operate on an earth road than it does on pavement. This is a fact not generally known and if known, not taken into consideration when taxpayers complain about the paying of highways.

Estimating that the average automobile owner drives 6,000 miles a year, then pavement permits him to save more than $18 a year in fuel cost alone.

There is a double mileage to be obtained from tires where the motor vehicle is operated on pavement, not to speak of the saving of wear on the machine and consequent lessening of garage bills.

This is not an advertisement for hard roads, but it is a common sense argument for the building of permanent roads.

Since it is established beyond doubt that they contribute to the economical operation of a motor car and since every person who ever road on a hard road knows the extra joy and comfort to be derived, as compared with riding on a gravel or stone road, why should there be any argument?

Let's build hard surfaced roads, cut maintenance costs to the minimum, get more pleasure out of motoring and ride father on a set of tires and a gallon of gasoline.

It was merely a case of superior playing for the Rushville high school basketball team romped away with the long end of the score in the game with Winona Technical Institute quintet of Indianapolis last night in the Graham school building gymnasium. The result was 36 to 25 in favor of the local lads and the manner in which they succeeded in taking the contest out of the very jaws of defeat was a sight for sore eyes.

After next week there will be no skating rink in Rushville and it is probable that the lovers of the pastime will take advantage of the last few nights. The building will be occupied by the Jacksonian printing company.

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—The national capital just now is the scene of a contest between materialists and idealists that, in greater or lesser degree may soon be reflected in every sizable city in the country.

In this battle, Beauty has been beset by Utility. If Utility wins, Beauty will have been vanquished. The assault is made, like that of the Germans in 1914, in the name of "Progress."

"Progress" in this year 1925 seems to consist chiefly in the forward movement of "Traffic." A city's progressivism is no longer marked by the spiritual or artistic ideals of its citizens.

The only test that seems to count in determining whether a given city is "awake" is the question of how it handles its "Traffic." So it is that the materialists in Washington propose in all seriousness the spoliation of the capital's magnificent park system.

Parks that impede traffic, they say, are a barrier to progress. Therefore abolish the park!

THAT this proposal should be made in Washington, where traffic is of less industrial importance than in any other city of its size in the country, but where, as a dressing for the national capital, the parks are of supreme importance, is an index of how seriously the traffic bug has inoculated the country.

Washington has little traffic that needs to hurry. It isn't a big city. It has no vast volume of merchandise to move. It has no big industries.

All that would be necessary to solve the traffic problem in Washington would be for the hordes of government employees who now all try to drive into the downtown section at 9 a. m. sharp, to get up 15 minutes sooner.

It is only at opening and closing of governmental business hours that there is any congestion.

IMMEDIATELY facing the White House grounds is Lafayette Park. Beyond the park, in line with the pillars of the White House portico, begins Sixteenth street, a favorable automobile thoroughfare.

"Why let that park block traffic?" ask the materialists. "It must make way for the auto. Extend Sixteenth street straight through to Pennsylvania avenue and 50 per cent more cars can move down that street alone!"

AGAINST this proposed vandalism of the capital's beauty, to clear a way for the "traffic" of "progress," the Fine Arts Commission, the City Planning Commission and organized civic associations have so far been able to hold their ground.

But the drive of the forces fighting for freer and faster traffic is increasing rather than diminishing.

If Utility defeats Beauty in this battle in Washington, the same result may be expected elsewhere. For here city beauty has had its stronghold.

Sometimes it looks like civilization's chief aim is to do things contrary to the Bible.

Some of the new dances have been given queer names, but the names are no queerer than the dances.

EXPECT BIG CROWD AT COLLEGE GAME

Butler-Franklin Contest, February 14, Will be Played at Exposition Building at Fair Grounds

PROBABLY BREAK ALL RECORD

Largest Crowds Estimated at 12,000 in Ohio, But "Expo" Building Will Exceed that Number

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 5—The Butler-Franklin basketball game Saturday night February 14, may break the world record for attendance at a college basketball game according to figures made known at the College today. Ohio State has played to a single crowd of over 12,000 people on several occasions and as far as can be ascertained, holds the attendance record.

Playing in the new Exposition building at the state fairgrounds, which will easily accommodate 12,000 spectators, the Baptist-Bulldog fight appears likely to smash the Buckeye record. The fact that the Bulldogs administered the only defeat ever suffered by Franklin under the coaching of Griz Wagner, has added unusual interest to the game.

Mail orders are coming in from all parts of the state and the Butler management has arranged with transportation companies to handle the increased traffic. Very few of the fans from out in the state have had any chance to see the Franklin "Wonder Team" in action since the finals of the tournament several years ago and it is expected that a great number will come in for the game.

Interest in Indianapolis is unusually high and this game will offer the first opportunity for the general public to see the Bulldogs in action as the previous games have been played in Tomlinson hall and the sale of tickets has been limited to a few hundred. Several high school coaches as the previous games have been for their squads and it is expected that a large number of high school teams will witness the battle. The capacity of the hall will be increased if the advance sale of tickets indicates that there will be an overflow crowd.

In order to prevent any congestion at the gates of the Exposition building, persons who are planning to attend the game should purchase tickets in advance. Tickets may be purchased at the Indianapolis store of A. G. Spalding and Bros., or may be ordered by mail from Butler College. Mail orders must be accompanied by money order or certified check for proper amount, plus 10 cents for sending tickets by registered mail. Money orders should be made payable to H. O. Page, athletic director.

Spiceland came to life for a time last Saturday and won their first game. Probably as a starter, they might expect to make Rushville eat the dust this Friday night. You never can tell in these basketball games and the thing to do, is not to take any chances. Eat 'em alive.

Spiceland on their own floor, always put up a hard fight, and Newcastle was given a tussle in a game played there a few weeks ago.

MAKE ALL OF THOSE SHOTS FROM THE FOUL LINE COUNT. LET'S DON'T HAVE ANY EXCUSE FOR LOSING A GAME BECAUSE THE FREE THROWS WENT WILD

Manilla plays at Carthage Friday night. This should be a good one.

Webb and New Salem also tackled each other Friday night. The game will be played at the Webb gym, instead of the Modern Appliance gym in this city, because it is now occupied by another business and can't be used as a gym. The Webb and New Salem girls also will play the curtain raiser.

Here's a Bargain For Saturday Night

The Rushville Junior high and the Homer Junior High will stage a game at the Graham Annex gym Saturday night. A curtain raiser will be played by the Washington (right) and the Rushville (left) school team, against another colored team from Franklin. The bargain is, that the entire evening can be spent for only a thin dime.

Maybe They Will Be The Bean Shooters

The fire at the Washington school a few weeks ago did one good thing. In remodeling it, the upper portion is to be a gym for the colored boys, and Prof. Bean will no doubt produce some real stuff with the fellows.

Lebanon plays over at Connersville Friday night. The pace that Lebanon has been setting this year will not cause much worry across the way.

The biggest worry in these parts Friday is the one that Shelbyville has. Their worry is Martinsville.

Rushville seconds are without a game this week end. They played their two games last week.

Lester Pearsey is a newcomer to high school. Lester moved in from Westport this week, and he has been playing on the team down there. He is a center or back guard. Regular Lion material, as he is about the size of Miller, the Lion's backguard. He will be given a tryout this week.

But Lester wasn't in the car when his Dad drove it in the Mill Race Sunday night, so he isn't initiated yet.

Speaking of Dads, didja know that Lowell Osborne's Dad is a honest to goodness player? He played a guard position down at Webb one night this week against an independent team. If you would look around in their barn lot, bet you would find an old hoop stuck around some place and sometime Bert and Lowell toss 'em in to practice up for the games.

That Game at Connersville

Dear Hittin' 'em:—
Rushville Lions play the Connersville Hawks at Connersville, February 13, 1925. Connersville has sent 400 tickets over in advance for the game and these may now be secured from E. B. Butler, Principal of the High School. The price is 50c and are for the section of the Connersville Gymnasium in which Rushville was placed during the Sixth District Tourney.

It will be recalled that the Connersville fans were given the entire seats balcony in our gymnasium when they played here December 19 and were not asked to take end seats.

Yours, E. B. B.

STILL WANTS A GAME

That town of Mitchell, located somewhere in Indiana near Vincennes and Washington, and which has defeated Bedford this season, and held Washington to close scores, is still persistent with Rushville, and wants a game here next year. Probably will have to accommodate them for one game anyway, says E. B. Butler, the fellow who is in charge of paying the bills.

A lotta towns have printed pieces lately concerning the poor gym in Rushville, which is all uncalled for. While the playing floor is not as large as some, yet the place is far from being poor, and many a school would rejoice if they had a place as good. We realize that it should be bigger, and it will be bigger as soon as team work among the fans can get started. The gym here accommodates a crowd of 1,800 people, but the playing floor is not as large as it should be. Hittin' 'em pick of a gym is the one at Richmond, (the Indoor Athletic field). It costs less than $50,000, and the possibilities are unlimited, because indoor games can be played in it the year around. For instance, there is tennis, track practice, football practice and other events which can be carried on in case of bad weather. The sky is the limit, and indoor baseball is a great pastime and exercise. The dirt floor develops track and field athletes. The bleachers at the Richmond gym are portable, and also the hardwood floor where they play basketball. When emptied, the building can be used for exhibits of all kinds, including corn shows, stock shows and large community gatherings and picnics—all protected by the weather.

WE MAY BE THE LAST. BUT LET'S MAKE IT THE BEST!

Let's see Washington is 21 points better than Bloomington according to the Owensville games and then Vincennes beats the 'Bloomers' but ten points. Looks like that gives us an eleven point edge. We'll throw off one point and that leaves the ten point margin we are calling for over Vincennes. —Basketbawls, Washington.

Now We Know What is Troubling Us

Over at Connersville, some one wrote in to Free Throws in the Free Press, asking him "What is the matter with the Rushville team? Now this fellow Free Throws is a wonder. He says: The team as a whole is good but never can rate with the state's best. Its greatest weakness is grandstanding, fore flushing, individual playing and internal troubles.

Seems as if Connersville is considerably worried to wonder what is the matter with Rushville. Maybe on Valentine's Day they will see those "internal troubles."

The White river may not be a Delaware, but Washington is going to cross it next Friday night.

—Vincennes Sun.

At least four Rushville fans and fanettes, Dr. and Mrs. Hale Pearsey and Mr. and Mrs. George Hogsett couldn't resist the temptation to see Connersville get beat and were among those present at the ceremonies Saturday night. —Markin' 'em Newcastle.

Markin' 'em also comments about greeting Ole Side Lights at the game and declares that he is a real sport. Side Lights congratulated the Newcastle team on their flashy comeback. Then Markin' 'em turns around and wonders thusly:

Wonder what became of E. Pierre Wainwright, the artist journalist and chief bologna spreader for the Connersville Free Press?

Perhaps after the raw deal E. Pierre gave some of the visitors at the Connersville tournament, he felt that he better not roam out for a while, and it may be a good thing he didn't.

YOUTHFUL FIREBUG

Anderson, Ind., Feb. 4—Benjamin Antrobus Jr., 15, youthful firebug, was sent to the reform school at Plainfield today. He confessed to setting fire to the garage at his home and then stealing his mother's purse containing $50 when the family rushed out to the fire.

Boston—Jimmy Jones of Youngstown Ohio won a 10 round decision over Bob Lourie, Scotland. The scrap alternated between clinching and clean fighting.

Behind Winner

Creighton University has been sponsoring winning basketball quintets for the past three seasons. And this year appeared to be no exception judging from the Omaha team's record. Much of the success has been due to the pair herewith pictured namely, Art Schabinger, coach (above), and Johnny Trautman, captain and star forward (below).

Counts on Shocker to Win

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 5—New York's chance in the approaching American League pennant race depend largely upon the gamble the Yankee owners made in getting Urban Shocker back from the St. Louis Browns.

George Sisler and the owners of the St. Louis club insist that they got all the better of the deal when they secured Joe Bush, Gaston and another rookie pitcher from the Yankee in exchange for Shocker.

They contend that Bush has just as much good pitching in him as Shocker; that Bush will be more contended in St. Louis than Shocker was and that he will be invaluable as a utility outfielder and a pinch-hitter. Gaston, they figure, is one of the most promising young pitchers in the American League.

New York's officials, although the fans are not unanimously in agreement with them, contend that Shocker will strengthen the team and that the Yankees did not have to weaken another department to get a badly needed pitcher with experience.

Shocker is expected to win twenty games or more for the Yankees and most any trade that could bring with it the promise of twenty games is not considered by the Yankee as a dangerous gamble.

Col. Jake Ruppert, owner of the former American League champions, believes that Shocker will win at least twenty games and that many of his victories will be turned in against the pennant-contending clubs.

"For years," Ruppert said, "I have considered Shocker to be the greatest pitcher in the American League. He has done valuable work with a team that has been only fair. We all know what it is to play for years through the sweltering hot summers in St. Louis."

Shocker is regarded by Ruppert as the greatest money pitcher in baseball. "I'd like to have him in the box if we were playing for the Yankee stadium. He's that good when the most depends upon him."

Some New York fans, who are not fond of Miller Huggins, said that the Browns sneaked up from behind and clipped him when they put over a deal. Bush was very popular here and they figured that he had just as much good baseball left in him as Shocker has and that he is much better team-player than the temperamental Shocker.

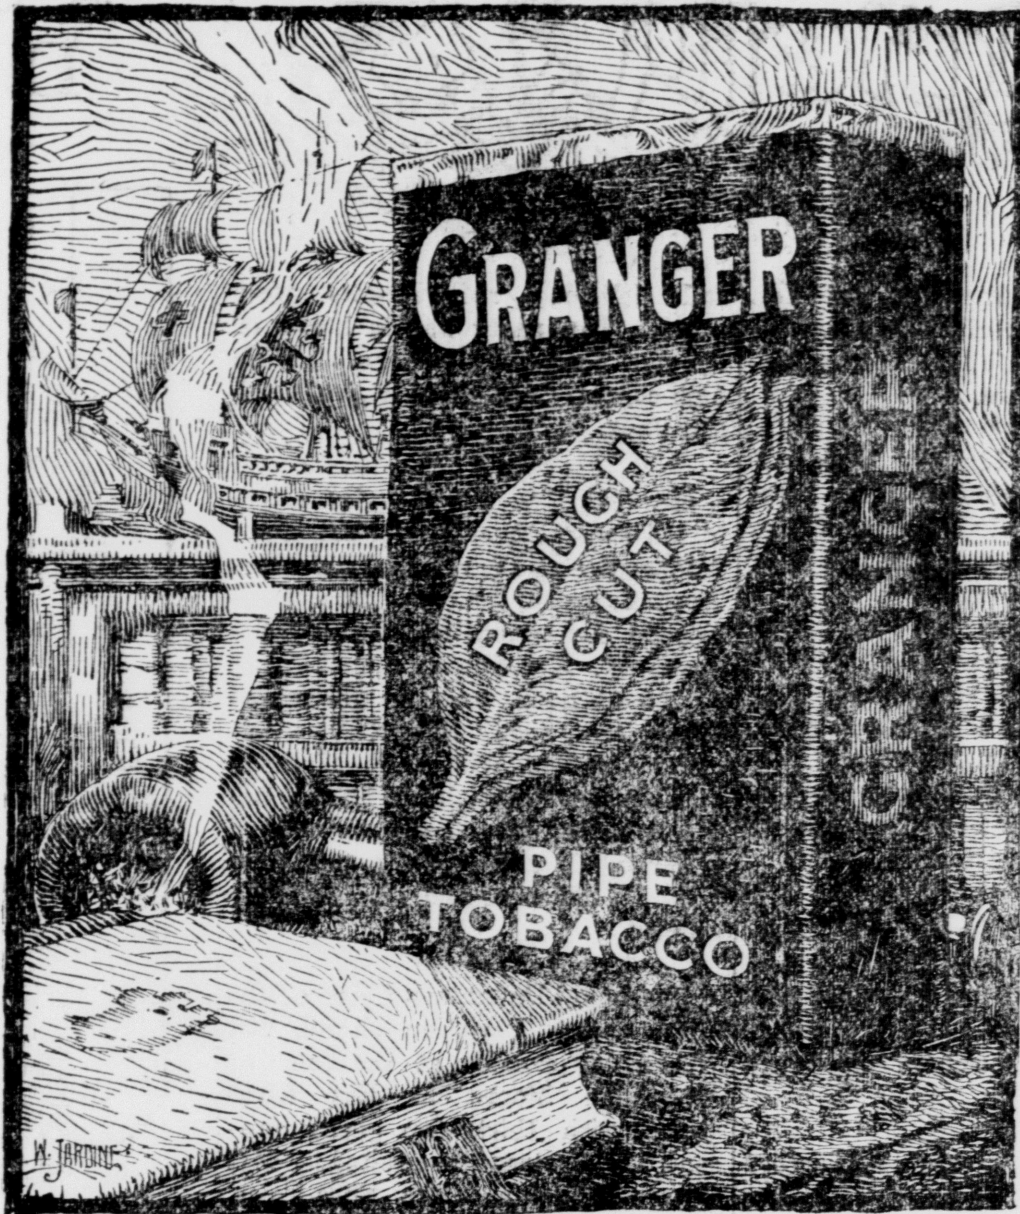

Last Showing Tonight

Few young players have had the diversity of theatrical experience that distinguishes the career of Ian Keith, one of Corinne Griffith's leading supports in "Love's Wilderness," now at the Princess theatre.

Keith is but twenty-five years old, yet he plays roles of years far in advance of his own. He is equally at ease in the part of a juvenile leading man, but prefers the less spectacular though more artistic part of character acting.

His name is well known to the New York stage. He is a newcomer in pictures, having played as leading man to Gloria Swanson in "Her Love Story," and in Ince's "Christine of the Hungry Heart," before com-

The most remarkable tobacco ever offered to pipe smokers — in quality, in value, in taste

Back about 1870, James N. Wellman developed a secret tobacco process which won instant and widespread favor. It yielded a fuller-bodied richness, mildness and fragrance which just seemed to "go" with a pipe. No one else ever knew his secret until we acquired Wellman's Method and by its means made "Granger Rough Cut"

The Ladies of the G. A. R., Mattox Circle, will meet Friday afternoon at two o'clock in the commissioners room at the court house, and all of the members are urged to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Retherford entertained with a chicken dinner Wednesday at high noon at their home north of the city, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. Will Dill and Mrs. Sarah Giffin.

The Immaculata Sodality entertained Wednesday evening with a card party at the K. of C. hall in West Second street. The evening was spent in playing euchre and refreshments were served. There were twenty-eight tables of cards.

Covers were laid for fifty-eight at the dinner-dance given at the Social Club Wednesday evening. Mrs. Clayton Martz and Mrs. Walter Hubbard were the captains of the division in charge of serving the delicious dinner. A pleasant evening was enjoyed in dancing, an orchestra from Richmond furnishing the music.

The Commercial Club of the local high school was delightfully entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Mildred Murphy in East Fourth street. A program was given consisting of musical numbers and talks by different members of the club. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and contests.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

and delicious refreshments were served. The party was in honor of the new commercial teachers of the high school, Cecil Plunkett, wife and son Jack.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ruggles entertained several friends and neighbors Wednesday at their home, 317 West Eleventh street, honoring Mrs. Ruggles on her seventieth birthday anniversary. A chicken dinner was served at noon, and the guests included Mrs. Sarah Siders, Miss Anna Siders, Mrs. William F. Wolcott, Mrs. Emma Powell, Mrs. Louise Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Blum, children, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Plunkett, Miss Dorothy Conner.

The Loyal Daughters Class of the Main Street Christian church met Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. Glen Moore in East Sixth street, with thirty-five guests present. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. George Urbach and Mrs. Ross Toles. Mrs. Harry Armstrong and Mrs. Ben Sparks gave two very interesting talks on the lesson and Mrs. Marie Offutt sang two solos. An important business meeting was held and a social hour was enjoyed at the close of the program. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. D. C. Compton and Mrs. Roy Brooks delightfully entertained the members of the Friendship Class of the St. Paul's M. E. church Wednesday evening at the home of the former in West Third street, with a "Kid" party. Much amusement was afforded throughout the evening by the kiddish appearance of everyone present. At the close of the business meeting games and refreshments in keeping with the party were enjoyed by all. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Amos Baxter with Mrs. Forrest Miller, assisting.

Mrs. Marsh Piatt entertained the members of the Rebekah Crochet club Wednesday afternoon at her home in this city. During the business session plans were made for "The Feast of Seven Tables," a supper, which will be served by the club, the date to be announced later. The members also decided to buy more dish towels and aprons for the I. O. O. F. hall. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in working on a comfort top. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Lillian Odnes, Mrs. Elsie Short, Mrs. Akte Allen and Mrs. Leona McIlwaine. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Elsie Short, February 13, at which time the comfort will be knotted.

DAINTINESS KEYNOTE FOR SPRING; FLUFFY RUFFLES WILL REAPPEAR

By HEDDA HOYT
(Written for United Press)

New York, Feb. 5—The New Year brings with it a change of fashions! And whether we like it or not, or know it or not, we have sworn off on being boyish.

Fashions are turning towards feminine lines with sheer lace frocks, ribbons, flowers and jewelry again coming into favor. In fact, the only way in which we shall remain boyish is in our figures and in our hair-cuts.

"Daintiness" is the keynote of the spring mode. Many of the newest gowns are made with the slender basque bodice and the ruffled skirt and others of chiffons and various soft fabrics are made with dainty, lacy petticoats which show through the outer material.

Gowns for matrons, while not adhering strictly to the fluffy type of skirt, have aprons, pleatings, godets, etc., which add a feminine note at the same time keeping the straight-line silhouette.

We are already noticing the change toward the feminine in millinery. The felt hat is doomed to oblivion, according to buyers returning from Paris. Smart women are refusing to buy hats which can be duplicated and sold in shops for $2 or $3 and they are demanding more individual styles. Both ribbon and flower trims will be noted as spring advances. Now with the Winter season in full sway, the trimmed felt is more popular than the plain one. Women are adding bows of ribbon as the short-brimmed backs of the tailored felts and appliqueing flat silk flowers on the crown. Crowns, by the way, are an important part of the hat this season. The newest crown trim is the little bow or bunch of flowers placed at the very top of the crown.

Among other feminine furbelows which are coming to the fore is jewelry. Earrings are popular in Paris and soon will be in the United States. Pearl necklaces are worn more today than they ever were. For evening wear as many as five or six matching necklaces and earrings also rule for evening wear.

STYLE NOTES

Among the newer colors used on the mid-season frocks for day wear are combinations of beige and black, rust, dark green and gray. For evening wear shades of reds and greens still prevail at the opera and formal functions with quite a general display of white. The newest evening shade noticed in the Fifth Avenue shops is a yellowish pink. Lettuce and emerald greens are the most conspicuous of the green shades.

The shoe with the single ankle strap is making its reappearance. The shoe itself is of simple pump shape while the strap is either finished at the side with a button or with a tiny rhinestone buckle. Some of the new satin pumps have little bows of ribbon tied at the outer side of the instep.

Lace frocks worn over handsome slips of contrasting shade are popular for dressy wear, black lace over pinkish-tan chiffon is very lovely. Bows of blue and pink ribbon or flower appliques may be posed here and there on the slip and these look charming through the lace overdress. Velvet bows worn at one side of the waistline of the lace frock are new. There is a lovely soft blue velvet which is usually placed on the black lace frock when the underslip is black or peach color.

MASTER CRIMINAL IS SOUGHT

Believed Responsible for "Poison Pill" Mystery at Ohio Uni.

Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 5—Investigation of Ohio State University's "poison pill" mystery narrowed down this afternoon for a determined search for a master criminal.

"A super intellectual" with a maniacal desire to broadcast death regardless of the identity of his victims is now believed responsible for the strychnine adulteration of dispensary drugs.

A discovery of 300 grains of the dead poison in an open shelf in the school of pharmacy today only strengthened the belief of John Chester, police prosecutor, that when the mystery eventually is solved a "keen but twisted intellect" will be revealed at its root.

M. W. OF A. MEETING

Thirteen delegates and thirteen alternates will be elected to represent Burr Oak Camp at the county camp meeting, to be held at Rushville, April 2, at 7:30 p. m., at the regular meeting of the camp, Thursday evening, Feb. 5, 1925, and a large attendance of the members is urged for this meeting.

Hartford City—One of the two prowlers who have held this city in a "reign of terror" for the past several weeks started following two high school girls and chased them in to the Jay Palmer home. Police could not find him.

Muncie—When Horace W. Edwards, 24, of Cleveland, O., refused to talk when brought up before Judge Dearth in Circuit court on a forgery charge following a plea of guilty, he was fined $200 and given 2 to 14 years imprisonment.

Cal's Cousin

Gertrude Victoria Moore of Brattleboro, Vt., went down to Washington to see her cousin, President Coolidge. Gertrude, a stenographer in a law office in Brattleboro, was named after the president's mother, Victoria Moore. She was born near the Coolidge homestead in Plymouth, Vt. What's more, she's a sorority sister of the "first lady" as both she and Mrs. Coolidge are members of Phi Beta Phi.

In Women's Footwear Fashions

We see a continuation of the plainer and tailored patterns made up in light tan; black and tan combinations; patents and satins. The trend is toward higher heels, the so-called spike heel being a leader. Box heels and low heels will continue. The plain D'Orsay pump has made a hit because of the easy fitting at the throat, over old models; Gore pumps continue; the ever popular strap pattern is with us to stay awhile; fancy and conservative patterns with cany straps. Side and center ties and bows are par excellence. Never were new shoes more beautiful.

Tells How to End Night Coughing

To quickly stop hacking, irritating coughing at night, a very simple treatment may be had that often enables you to sleep the whole night through undisturbed almost at once.

The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take a teaspoonful at night before retiring, and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and relieves irritation and soreness, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. So no matter whether your cough is dry and tight, or loose with much mucus, the coughing soon stops, you can usually sleep your accustomed time without a break, and the whole cough condition goes in a very short time.

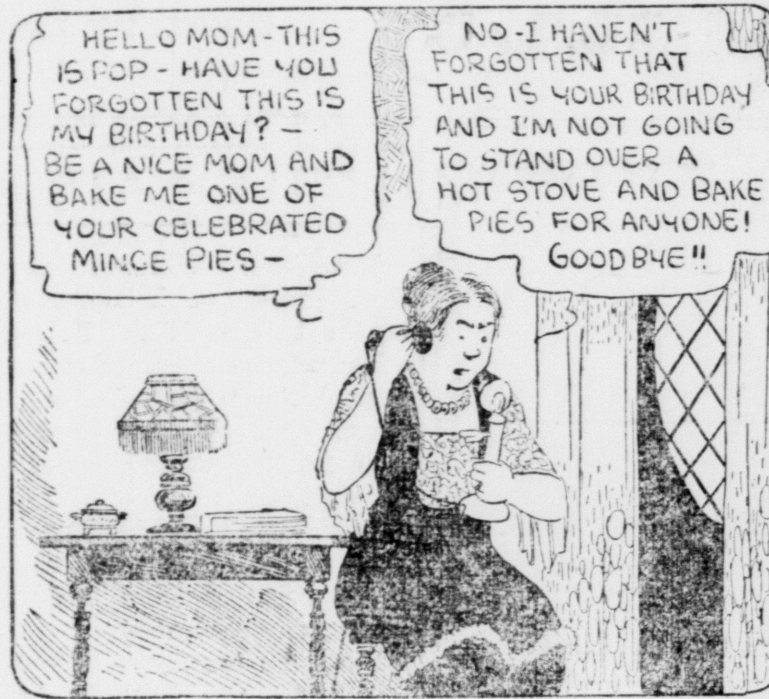

The prescription contains absolutely no narcotics or other harmful drugs. Instead, it actually helps the system to throw off the trouble in a perfectly natural way. Furthermore, it is very economical, the dose being only one teaspoonful. It is highly recommended for coughs, chest colds, tickling, hoarseness and bronchitis, and is wonderful for children's coughs and spasmodic croup. On sale at all good druggists. Ask for

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stevens were visitors in Indianapolis Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Matney visited relatives in Connersville Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerick Clifford attended the Ellerman sale near Arlington Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Waskom returned home Monday morning from Bloomington, having been called there Wednesday by the illness of Mrs. Waskom's father, Mr. Cox.

There was no school in the Johnson district Monday and Tuesday owing to the illness of the teacher, Miss Margaret Hamilton.

Miss Marian Tittsworth spent the week-end with friends in Indianapolis.

Mrs. E. E. Davis will go to St. Louis next week for a visit with her daughter, Miss Dorothy Davis.

We had the pleasure of "listening in" when Miss Loretta Coyne sang over the radio last Saturday night in Cleveland, Ohio. Miss Coyne lived in Orange when a child, her parents, Michael Coyne and Etta Stone Coyne were natives of Orange and are remembered here.

An entertainment will be given Saturday night in the school auditorium. The program includes songs, monologues and a playlet with ten characters in the cast.

A metal ceiling is being put in the Christian church. T. O. and Charles Medd are in charge of the work.

J. T. Reed and daughter Miss Helen Reed motored to Brookville, Ky., Sunday and remained until Wednesday, being at the bedside of a cousin, Mrs. Brown, who is seriously ill.

The Christian Endeavor society of Orange will give the program Sunday evening at the Epworth League meeting in the M. E. church in Glenwood.

The Social Circle will meet Thursday afternoon of next week with Mrs. J. E. Waskom.

The meeting of the Laf A Lot club which was to have been held with Mrs. R. N. Dawson last Wednesday was called off on account of illness among the members.

Mrs. Emory Williams and daughter Kathleen of LaFontaine visited her aunt, Miss Eliza Holman and other relatives over the week-end. Miss Holman passed her eighty-fourth birthday a few days ago and is in fairly good health for one of her age.

The Russell and Wilkinson divisions of the Missionary society met at the home of Miss Ida Stevens Wednesday afternoon.

Several more cases of mumps in this community have developed the last few days. Those ill are Russell Logan, Harrison Carney, Olive Smith, Harold Norris, Carvel Cooper and Esther Geise.

The Girl's Circle will meet at the home of Miss Florence York Saturday afternoon with Miss Thelma Williams as leader.

Mrs. Bert Heaton attended the Farmer's Institute at Richland Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gwinup entertained at dinner Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Logan and D. E. Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morris entertained at a family dinner Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Matney, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith and son Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morris and family of Indianapolis, Mrs. Jane Matney, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Matney and Mrs. Jennie Overleese.

The members of the Christian Endeavor Society deserve much praise for the manner in which they gave the pageant, "Youth Dares," at the church Sunday evening. Alton Wilson and Gilbert Stevens represented Materialism and War, Ursula Smith, as Truth; Nora Rorch, love; Mary Heaton, Service; Frances Johnson, Maturity; Gertrude Johnson, Childhood; and Mary Evelyn Cook as proponent, were all dressed in appropriate costumes which added much to the spirit of the play and made the impression upon the audience much more effective. Those representing the foreign countries were George Hoffman, England; Harley York, Germany; Letha Williams, Japan, and Florence York, Czechoslovakia, each carrying the flag of the country represented. There were eight boys and girls representing the United States, two Harrison Carney and Olive Smith, as speakers. As the play progressed War and Materialism were driven from the stage with Truth triumphant and occupying the throne. All bowed to truth and the pageant closed by all repeating the pledge of allegiance to the Christian flag, which was represented by Truth with upraised arms. The offering was taken up by four boys, William Norris, Richard Geise, George Hoffman and Harrison Carney.

The Women's Missionary Society will hold an all day meeting at the church Thursday with Mrs. Ona Manzy as leader of the program.

Newkirk's Corner

FOUR PEOPLE HURT IN WRECK OF AUTO

Machine Turns Completely Over
East of Rushville and Occupants
Are Held for Drunkenness

DALE SMILEY HURT WORST

Accused of Driving Automobile
While Under the Influence of Intoxicating Liquor

Four Connersville people, two men and two women, figured in an automobile wreck, just east of Rushville, Wednesday afternoon about four o'clock, and all of them are under arrest, charged with drunkenness.

Two of them were badly hurt, and the machine was damaged to a great extent, with the top being smashed and the car broken in several places.

The persons gave their names as Dale Smiley and Frank Perkins and Carrie Pifer and Ethel Wandell. Smiley owned the car, according to the officers, and he also is held on another charge of driving a machine while under the influence of liquor.

The charges were preferred by Prosecutor Ketchum in city court. Smiley was removed to the Dr. Sexton hospital for an examination, and later removed to the home of a relative in this city.

The other three persons were taken into custody by Sheriff Hunt and Patrolman Havens who were called to the scene of the accident. The Pifer woman was badly injured about the head, suffered a gash that required three stitches to close the wound. She also was badly bruised, but no bones were broken. The other two persons were bruised, but not injured to any great extent.

The three were placed in jail by the officers. They had not been arraigned in court early this afternoon as the Pifer woman was not able to be moved from the jail, and Smiley also was not able to appear.

The four persons were enroute to Connersville, according to the officers. The machine was making the dip in the road at the old fair grounds, just east of here, when the driver lost control, and the machine went sideways in the road, and turned over once. When stopped, the machine was right side up, and turned completely around, according to the officers.

TWO BURN TO DEATH IN EVANSVILLE FACTORY FIRE

Another Seriously Burned While
Trying to Rescue Victims From
Veneer Company's Plant

GARY FACTORY IS WRECKED

(By United Press)

Evansville, Ind., Feb. 5.—Two men were burned to death early today and another was seriously burned while trying to rescue them when the drying plant of the Evansville Veneer Company burned to the ground.

The dead: Charles Wilder, 45, and John Peacock, 42.

The flames, feeding on the tinder-like veneering and shavings, spread like a flash through the big room in which 17 men of the night force were at work.

George Vandever, bearing the cries of the two trapped men, turned back to their aid. He was immediately enveloped by flames that seared his face and fired his clothing. He was rescued through a window by fellow working men.

Loss was estimated at $75,000.

Gary, Ind., Feb. 5.—The spark from a dynamo is believed to be the cause of a terrific powder explosion which wrecked the mixing mill of the Victor Photo Specialty Company here late yesterday. F. E. Bennett, foreman of the flash light powder mixing mill, was burned severely but will recover, physicians say.

Other parts of the plant were unharmed save the windows, which were all broken. The damage was placed at $3,000.

Three years ago the entire plant was destroyed by a similar explosion.

TOWNSHIP ASSESSORS MEET

Addressed by Walter Bridges of
State Tax Commission

A meeting with the township assessors and their deputies was held Wednesday at the office of Earl Priest, county assessor, at which time the assessing plans were discussed.

Each township assessor, excepting Posey and Washington, and their deputies were present for the session and a talk was made by Walter Bridges, district representative for the state tax board. He also answered questions, and a discussion was held concerning the manner in which the spring assessments will be made, commencing March 1.

TELLS LOBBYISTS THEY MUST STAY OUT

Lieut. Gov. VanOrman Warns Members of "Third House" They Are
Interfering With Legislators

UTILITY BILL IS PASSED

Senate Would Require Utilities to Appeal to State Courts Instead of
Federal Court

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 5.—Lieut. Governor VanOrman today told lobbyists in the senate to "get out and stay out."

He issued a final order to senate door-keepers to bar lobbyists from the floor of the senate, saying that "if they don't have the conscience to stay away we will keep them out."

VanOrman declared the lobbyists had been "bothering the senators and interfering in the affairs of the legislators."

The senate today passed the Barker bill requiring public utilities to appeal their rate cases to state courts. The bill had failed to pass a few days ago because it lacked a constitutional majority. The vote for passage today however was 30 to 9.

The bill would prevent appeals of utilities on rate orders by the public service commission direct to the federal court.

The eugenical sterilization bill was sent back to the committee for minor amendments.

By a vote of 64 to 25 the house accepted a minority report of the education committee favoring passage of the Cooper bill prohibiting the wearing of any distinctive religious garb by school teachers.

The argument which came up when the utility bill was first placed on passage that it was unconstitutional because utilities have a right to appeal on rates that are confiscatory was parried by Senator Barker, of Thornton, sponsor of the measure. He declared that the pleas by utilities that rates are confiscatory were merely a "smoke screen."

He said the utilities take advantage of the fact that the court cannot go into the case as deeply as the commission and that their clever attorneys find technicalities on which to win their cases.

A bill introduced in the house by Representative Marden of Logansport would require the teaching of the same courses of study in parochial schools as taught in the public schools in the state.

It provides for regular inspection by officials of the state department of public instruction to see that the parochial schools complied.

By a vote of 64 to 25 the house passed the bill, previously killed in the senate prohibiting school teachers from wearing any distinctive garb.

BURNS FATAL TO CHILD

Bloomfield, Ind., Feb. 4.—Burns received when he fell into a tub of boiling water caused the death of Charles Ogg, 18-months-old son of Robert Ogg. The tub of water was being used by the mother to scrub the floors.

HITS TRAIN HEAD ON LIVES

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 5.—Caught on a crossing by two trains going in opposite directions, Alex Voelker, 26, today swerved his auto down the track toward one of the trains. The auto climbed the engine's cowcatcher and was wrecked, but Voelker escaped uninjured.

Where Cave Explorer Is Trapped

Floyd Collins, left, trapped in Sand Cave, near Cave City, Ky., is reported today to be barely alive, after being held prisoner in the cave since last Friday morning. The last person reported leaving the underground prison said Collins was in a subconscious condition. Above is entrance to the cave and the diagram shows how Collins is trapped. Dotted line is where rescuers had hoped to clear space to free Collins until a new cavein Thursday thwarted them. Small inset is Jewel Estes, 17, who discovered Collins' plight.

Workmen Prepare to Sink New Shaft to Reach Entombed Man

Last Man Coming From Cave Today
Reports Floyd Collins, Prisoner
Since Last Friday Is Barely Alive.
Dead or Alive, He Will Be Brought
From Underground Prison, Ken-
tucky Officials Pledge

(By United Press)

Cave City, Ky., Feb. 5.—"Ask the country to pray for my boy" Lee Collins, father of Floyd Collins, entombed explorer, begged today.

"I know the Lord is able to give my boy the strength to live until the new shaft reaches him."

Workmen were busy preparing to sink the new shaft in a final effort to reach Collins.

It was not known early this afternoon whether he was dead or alive, the last man coming from the cave saying that the victim was barely conscious.

Dead or alive, Collins will be taken from Sand Cave where he has been imprisoned more than 140 hours. Kentucky officials have pledged itself to bring him out.

But even with the resources of his state and the federal government marshalled in his behalf, Collins probably will perish.

The slant, frigid tunnel through which men huddled toward the victim has swollen shut. The bulging mud is freezing.

Roy Hyde, expert miner returning from the last plunge into the depths, replied into the open air to report: "That's my last trip. I'd never come out alive if I tried it again. I couldn't even get my hand through the opening that is left."

The only means of reaching Collins now would be through a new shaft. This must be cut directly to the spot where Collins lies. Engineers have abandoned a plan to dig through to the walls of a giant vault beyond Collins. From the point they would have emerged, it would have been necessary to scale a forty foot precipice, pitch the jailer boulder into the void and then carry Collins out. This plan is believed impracticable.

JACKSON STUDIES STATE BUDGET BILL

Measure Providing for $46,078,925
Appropriation is Placed Before
The Governor

FEW CHANGES EXPECTED

For First Time in State History, it
Proposes to Place all Departments
Under Budget

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 5.—Governor Jackson today studied the $46,078,925 budget bill for expenses of state departments and institutions during the next two fiscal years.

The bill was placed before the governor late yesterday by the legislative budget advisory committee and budget officials late yesterday after weeks of toil in whittling down the appropriation requests of the departments and institutions.

Governor Jackson expected to transmit the bill to the legislature with his recommendations before adjournment is taken for the week end. Since he was in frequent conference with drafters of the bill while it was being prepared, it was regarded as certain that he will send it on to the legislature practically unchanged.

For the first time in the history of state finances, the bill proposes to place all departments and institutions including the state colleges and normal schools, under budget control.

Nearly $15,000,000 were slashed from the departmental and institutional requests to bring the figure down to $46,078,925 for the two years.

Increases granted some departments coming under budget control for the first time practically balance a $1,000,000 reduction on items which were included in the budget bill of 1923.

A continuance of the present tax rate of twenty-eight cents is anticipated on the basis of the new budget bill.

In making drastic slashes in budget requests, the committee whittled the highway commission figures from $30,000,000 to $22,000,000, cut the building request of the state reformatory from $1,000,000 to $250,000, and allowed the state colleges $925,000 of the $5,000,000 they had requested for new buildings.

The bill specifies that all collections from the gasoline tax and the auto license fees shall go to the highway commission for road construction and maintenance.

If the revenue from these sources is more than estimated in the budget bill, the commission is authorized to

IN THICK OF THE CHINESE WAR

Lieut. Weldon Brann Writes That U.
S. Troops Have Close Calls

Weldon Brann, son of O. C. Brann of this city and a first lieutenant in the United States Army, has had some thrilling experiences in China, according to word received here in a letter from him.

Lieut. Brann, who is stationed at Tientsin, and writes that the American troops have had some close calls, but have always escaped. The civil war has not been very serious this spring, he stated, but a fresh outbreak is expected this spring.

Due to poor mail service, very few letters are received from the former Rushville boy. Two letters written to him previous to the time he mailed the letter just reaching Rushville, had not been received when he wrote.

BASEMENT OF M. E. CHURCH RANSACKED

Intruder Goes Through Drawers and
Moves Dishes, Evidently in
Search of Money

NOTHING OF VALUE TAKEN

Stranger Found in Church Early in
Evening, Who Was Ordered Away,
Probably Returned

A hold robber ransacked the basement of the St. Paul's M. E. church Fifth and Morgan streets, sometime Tuesday night, it was disclosed today, and the robbery marked the second time within the same evening that the church was entered, probably by the same person.

The robber was discovered in the church earlier in the evening, and told to leave, after he had made an excuse that he had dropped in the basement window to keep warm for the night. He was told to leave by George Wiltse, who with his wife had gone to the church about seven o'clock Tuesday evening.

The young man left after he had been questioned by Mr. Wiltse, but Wednesday it was discovered that he had returned or else some other person had entered the church during the same night, and ransacked money that was thought to have been hidden there.

One of the women's organizations of the church had met in the church Tuesday afternoon, and that evening about seven o'clock, Mrs. Wiltse remembered that she had not locked the silverware drawer in the new buffet in the basement.

She and Mr. Wiltse went to the church. Mr. Wiltse remained upstairs, while she went down the stairs. She locked the silverware drawer, and observed a man lying on the floor, beneath a basement window.

Mrs. Wiltse went up stairs and summoned Mr. Wiltse, who went to the place where the man was concealed, and talked to him. The fellow was described as being a young man light hair, and fairly well dressed but had a dirty face. He told Mr. Wiltse that he had come in from Louisville, and that he lived in Indianapolis. He wanted a warm place to spend the night, and after Mr. Wiltse had talked to him for several minutes, he told him that the church was not a hotel, and that he had better leave.

Mr. Wiltse suggested that he go to the C. I. & W. railroad, a block south, and wait for a train that would take him to Indianapolis. The men left, and Mr. Wiltse locked the basement window, through which he had gained entrance.

On Wednesday Mr. Wiltse went to the church and discovered the basement had been ransacked. The drawer in which the silverware was kept had been pried open, and the lock ruined, as well as the fine woodwork on the buffet.

Dishes had been removed from their stacks, and it was evident that the person was looking behind them for hidden money. Nothing was missed.

Another window in the basement was unlocked, and it is believed that the robber came in by this window, or else from one of the larger church windows which might have been left unfastened.

It is the belief that the robber saw

DEPUTY COLLECTOR TO AID TAXPAYERS

Harry E. Royse Will be at Court House Next Week to Assist in income Tax Matters

IN THE COUNTY FIVE DAYS

Royse Will be at Carthage Thursday,
Feb. 12, and Milroy, Feb. 13—
New Law is Explained

Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue Harry E. Royse will be at the court house in Rushville on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 9, 10 and 11 to assist any who desire assistance in making current income tax returns and to answer such questions as may be asked concerning the provisions of the new Revenue Law. He will be at Carthage on Thursday, Feb. 12, and at Milroy on Friday, Feb. 13, for the same purpose.

Under the Revenue Act of 1924 every unmarried person, whether entitled to the status of "Head of a family" or not, who has a net income of $1000 is required to file a return although allowable exemptions and credits for dependents may relieve him from any liability to pay tax.

Every married person, who was married during the entire year of 1924 and living with husband or wife, who had a net income of $2500 or more is required to file a return although his allowable exemptions and credit for dependents may relieve him from liability to pay tax and every person, whatever his status, who has a gross income of $5000 or more and regardless of what may be his net income, is required to file a return.

Every corporation and partnership regardless of the amount of income is required to file a return although allowable exemptions and deductions may relieve of the liability to pay any tax.

There are some new provisions in the Act of 1924 that have not appeared in the law of previous years. Chief among these is the provision providing for a reduction of 25 per cent of the amount of the tax on earned incomes up to a limit of $10,000.00. All incomes, whether actually earned or not, of $5,000.00 or less are rated as earned incomes under the law.

The year 1924 was the first in which any provision was made for dividing the exemption allowed a married person or head of a family by reason of a change in status during the year. Under the new law this is now pro-rated. A head of family is an unmarried person who maintains a household for one or more persons closely related to him by blood or marriage and living in the same house with him. This per-

DEPAUW CHOIR TO APPEAR IN CONCERT FRIDAY NIGHT

Widely Known Musical Organization
Brought to Rushville by St.
Paul's M. E. Church Choir

HEARD HERE FEW YEARS AGO

The DePauw university choir, widely known musical organization, will appear in a concert at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church Friday evening at eight o'clock under the auspices of the St. Paul's church choir.

This organization gave a concert in Rushville a few years ago when a music conference was held by Methodist churches of the Connersville district, and created a very favorable impression. The choir is composed of twenty voices, violinist, cellist, pianist and organist. Robert G. McCutcheon, dean of music at DePauw is conductor.

The program announced for the concert here is as follows:

Tis Thy Wedding Morning, from "Rose Maiden", Cowan—The University Choir.
Berceuse from "Jocelyn", Godard—The University Choir, Miss Welch, Miss Green, and Miss Baum.
A Spring Song, Pinsuti; At Dawning, Cadman—The University Choir.

the women at the church in the afternoon, and probably believed that a social had been held, and if he had seen Mrs. Wiltse lock the drawer, his suspicions were probably aroused as to the value of the contents.

The man was not seen here yesterday after Mr. Wiltse made the discovery.

SERIES OF MEETING

The Rev. M. C. McClure, pastor of the New Salem M. E. church, has begun a series of revival meetings at his church. He is being assisted by the Rev. Mr. McIntick of Richmond, Ky. Unusual interest is being manifested in this meeting.

ARLINGTON INSTITUTE ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

O. N. Brown Chosen at Closing Session Wednesday Which is Attended by 100 People

PRIZE AWARDS ARE MADE

Officers for next year's meeting were elected at the closing session of the Posey township farmers' institute in Arlington, Wednesday afternoon, with O. N. Brown chosen as president; Everett Hester, vice president, and Carl Dearing, secretary. Mrs. A. W. Rigsbee was elected president of the ladies' department.

O. J. Miller retired as president; Warren Nelson as vice president and A. W. Rigsbee as secretary. Mrs. Rowland Earnest was head of the ladies' department this year.

About one hundred persons were in attendance at the institute Wednesday and four very pleasing and worth-while addresses were delivered by Mrs. John W. Spindler of Grabbill, Ind., and Wm. H. Senour of Brookville. A dinner was served at the noon hour in the basement of the M. E. church, where the institute was held.

A large list of prizes, consisting of cash and merchandise offered by Rushville merchants, were awarded at the close of the afternoon session. There were four classes in the corn show for men, and two for boys and a potato class and a boys' corn judging contest. Prizes were also given in the ladies department for the best culinary and for the best fancy work shown by school girls.

SIX BELIEVED TRAPPED

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 5—Six men were believed trapped in the Modern Grinder Company, four story building here, which was being swept by flames this afternoon. Three alarms were turned in and practically every bit of the fire fighting apparatus in the city was hurried to the scene. The cause of the fire is unknown. The men believed trapped are handicapped war veterans working on the third floor of the plant, officials said.

Why Death?

Prof. M. F. Guyer of the University of Wisconsin, believes that death can be averted. He bases his belief on the fact that he has been able to keep cells and tissues of a human body alive for an indefinite period. He uses a chemical solution containing lithium chloride. Death, he says, results from parasitic accumulations in human cells, and can be corrected by rejuvenating the tissues.

Tardiness Paid

Chief of Police Dan O'Brien of San Francisco and his captain have discovered it sometimes pays to be late. They were scheduled to meet in the chief's office at 10 a. m. But none got there until 10:20. At 10:37 a bomb exploded in a telephone booth, just 20 feet away from O'Brien's office in the Hall of Justice. A two-foot hole was blown in a stone wall and the chief's rooms and corridors were littered with wreckage.

son need not be dependent for support upon the person taking the status of head of a family but must live in the same house and be closely related by blood or marriage.

Income received by a minor child living at home must be included in the return of one of the parents. Credit for dependents is allowable only for persons under 18 years of age or who are physically or mentally defective. Such dependents need not be living in the same household with the taxpayer.

Under the revenue act there is no age limit to the requirement to file a return. Ordinarily person under legal age is not required to file a return if the income received by such person is reported by a parent in the return of the parent. However, any person of whatever age, who receives an income of $1000, if unmarried must file a return or a return must be filed for him by parent, guardian, or other person chargeable with the responsibility of acting for such person.

spend the excess amounts for additional roads.

A total appropriation of $7,037,000 is recommended for the colleges and normals for the next two years in place of the present 5 cent school tax levy.

The annual recommendation for each institution gives Indiana and Purdue universities $1,050,000 each, the Terre Haute normal $305,000 and the Muncie normal $267,500.

Indiana was allowed $325,000 for a new library, while Purdue was given $150,000 for a new horticultural building and $200,000 for a new engineering building under the recommendations of the bill.

The Terre Haute normal's building requests were denied but an increase of $50,000 in the appropriation for operating expense was recommended.

The bill includes an item of $250,000 for a new library and assembly hall at the Muncie normal.

A request of the Riley Memorial Hospital for $500,000 for new buildings was not allowed.

The southern hospital for the insane at Evansville is recommended to receive $300,000 for new buildings while the item of $500,000 for the buildings for the central hospital for the insane at Indianapolis was practically eliminated.

The bill does not provide for a single salary increase for state officials or employees.

One of the items lopped off was the request of Dr. H. N. Sherwood, superintendent of public instruction for a pay boost from $5,000 to $7,500 a year.

One of the hottest fights of the present session is anticipated over the provision of the bill to bring the state normals and universities under the budget control.

ECHOES FROM THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 5.—Control of the Nancy Hanks Lincoln burial ground, the Tippecanoe battle ground, capital square, the old capitol building at Corydon and the state land department of the auditor's office would be transferred to the conservation commission under the provisions of a bill presented in the legislature by Representative Farrell, of Hartford City.

Appropriations now available for the separate units would be available for the commission in the disposition of its other duties under provisions of the bill.

Now comes the beauty trust.

Practitioners in this high art are known as "cosmetologists" and they are going to have to step up and get themselves examined once in a while if a bill introduced in the house by Representative Barlow of Plainfield becomes a law.

The bill seeks to create a state board of cosmetology examiners to license all persons aspiring to administer beauty in large doses.

A bill requiring the auditor of state to audit the books of the state board of accounts annually is being drafted for presentation to the legislature, it was learned today.

The bill would place the audit of the board's books within the province of the auditor's department.

At present the accounts board employs outside accountants to make a check of its books.

The state constabulary bill favored by the Indiana Bankers' Association was before the legislature today. It was introduced in the house of Representative Wright of Lynn. The bill provides for the creation of a state department of police, under control of a commission of three members who would serve without salary.

A state police commissioner to be appointed by the governor with a salary of $3,000 is also provided.

The constabulary force would consist of about one hundred men. The bill is drafted after the Pennsylvania and New York constabulary laws and provides that the state shall be divided into patrol districts which would be policed by a complete unit of the constabulary with lieutenants and other officers.

Pride in City Plant

Rushville people read with considerable pride the account of the development of the Rushville water and light plant during the past 33 years, in the Daily Republican Wednesday evening.

They noted that the plant had an income of $106,000 last year and that during the past year and a half

$46,000 had been taken out of the earnings to increase the capacity and improve the plant, without a cent of cost to the taxpayers of the city.

The municipal plant has been subjected to considerable adverse criticism in the past, but those who will take the trouble to investigate conditions elsewhere will find that

Rushville water and light patrons are faring better than in the average city where this service is provided by a private corporation.

It is surprising to find the number of people who still labor under the delusion that they pay taxes to support the water and light plant.

While it is true that the plant is credited with a legitimate sum for furnishing street lights and water service for fire protection, no tax money goes into the water light fund for its maintenance.

The fact that all but nineteen hours in Rushville are using city water and that ninety-two percent of the houses in the city are wired for electricity is very good evidence that the plant has been giving satisfactory service.

If the councilmen who started the city light plant 33 years ago had not been steadfast in their belief that the people would profit from such an investment, Rushville would probably now be in the condition of many other cities that are fighting constant attempts to increase utility rates.

The founders of the plant had vision enough to see its value and courage enough to stand by their convictions.

Hard Facts on Roads

After a test covering five years, automotive engineers are convinced that with gasoline at 20 cents a gallon, it costs three-fourths of a cent more per ton mile to operate on an earth road than it does on pavement.

This is a fact not generally known and if known, not taken into consideration when taxpayers complain about the paving of highways.

Estimating that the average automobile owner drives 6,000 miles a year, then pavement permits him to save more than $18 a year in fuel

cost alone.

There is a double mileage to be obtained from tires where the motor vehicle is operated on pavement, not to speak of the saving of wear on the machine and consequent lessening of garage bills.

This is not an advertisement for hard roads, but it is a common sense argument for the building of permanent roads.

Since it is established beyond doubt that they contribute to the economical operation of a motor car and since every person who ever road on a hard road knows the extra joy and comfort to be derived, as compared with riding on a gravel or stone road, why should there be any argument?

Let's build hard surfaced roads,

cut maintenance costs to the minimum, get more pleasure out of motoring and ride father on a set of tires and a gallon of gasoline.

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT

NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—The national capital just now is the scene of a contest between materialists and idealists that, in greater or less degree, may soon be reflected in every sizable city in the country.

In this battle, Beauty has been beset by Utility. If Utility wins,

Beauty will have been vanquished.

The assault is made, like that of the Germans in 1914, in the name of "Progress."

"Progress" in this year 1925

seems to consist chiefly in the forward movement of "Traffic." A city's progressivism is no longer marked by the spiritual or artistic ideals of its citizens.

The only test that seems to count in determining whether a given city is "awake" is the question of how it handles its "Traffic."

So it is that the materialists in Washington propose in all seriousness the spoliation of the capital's magnificent park system.

Parks that impede traffic, they say, are a barrier to progress.

Therefore abolish the park!

THAT this proposal should be made in Washington, where traffic is of less industrial importance than in any other city of its size in the country, but where,

as a dressing for the national capital, the parks are of supreme importance, is an index of how seriously the traffic bug has innoculated the country.

Washington has little traffic that needs to hurry. It isn't a big city. It has no vast volume of merchandise to move. It has no big industries.

All that would be necessary to solve the traffic problem in Washington would be for the hordes of government employees who now all try to drive into the downtown

section at 9 a. m. sharp, to get up

15 minutes sooner.

It is only at opening and closing of governmental business hours

that there is any congestion.

IMMEDIATELY facing the White House grounds is "Lafayette Park. Beyond the park, in line with the pillars of the White House portico, begins Sixteenth street, a favorable automobile thoroughfare.

"Why let that park block

traffic?" ask the materialists. "It must make way for the auto. Extend Sixteenth street straight through to Pennsylvania avenue and 50 per cent more cars can move down that street alone!"

AGAINST this proposed vandalism of the capital's beauty,

to clear a way for the

"traffic" of "progress," the Fine

Arts Commission, the City Planning Commission and organized civic associations have so far been able to hold their ground.

But the drive of the forces fighting for freer and faster traffic is increasing rather than diminishing.

If Utility defeats Beauty in this battle in Washington, the same result may be expected elsewhere.

For here city beauty has had its stronghold.

EXPECT BIG CROWD AT COLLEGE GAME

Butler-Franklin Contest, February 14, Will be Played at Exposition Building at Fair Grounds

PROBABLY BREAK ALL RECORD

Largest Crowds Estimated at 12,000 in Ohio, But "Expo" Building Will Exceed that Number

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 5.—The Butler-Franklin basketball game Saturday night February 14, may break the world record for attendance at a college basketball game according to figures made known at the College today. Ohio State has played to a single crowd of over 12,000 people on several occasions and as far as can be ascertained, holds the attendance record.

Playing in the new Exposition building at the state fairgrounds, which will easily accommodate 12,000 spectators, the Baptist-Bulldog fight appears likely to smash the Buckeye record. The fact that the Bulldogs administered the only defeat ever suffered by Franklin under the coaching of Griz Wagner, has added unusual interest to the game.

Mail orders are coming in from all parts of the state and the Butler management has arranged with transportation companies to handle the increased traffic. Very few of the fans from out in the state have had any chance to see the Franklin "Wonder Team" in action since the finals of the tournament several years ago and it is expected that a great number will come in for the game.

Interest in Indianapolis is unusually high and this game will offer the first opportunity for the general public to see the Bulldogs in action as the previous games have been played in Tomlinson hall and the sale of tickets has been limited to a few hundred. Several high school coaches as the previous games have been for their squads and it is expected that a large number of high school teams will witness the battle. The capacity of the hall will be increased if the advance sale of tickets indicates that there will be an overflow crowd.

In order to prevent any congestion at the gates of the Exposition building, persons who are planning to attend the game should purchase tickets in advance. Tickets may be purchased at the Indianapolis store of A. G. Spalding and Bros., or may be ordered by mail from Butler College. Mail orders must be accompanied by money order or certified check for proper amount, plus 10 cents for sending tickets by registered mail. Money orders should be made payable to H. O. Page, athletic director.

Spiceland came to life for a time last Saturday and won their first game. Probably as a starter, they might expect to make Rushville eat the dust this Friday night. You never can tell in these basketball games and the thing to do, is not to take any chances. Eat 'em alive.

Spiceland on their own floor, always put up a hard fight, and New-castle was given a tussle in a game played there a few weeks ago.

MAKE ALL OF THOSE SHOTS FROM THE FOUL LINE COUNT. LET'S NOT HAVE ANY EXCUSE FOR LOSING A GAME BECAUSE THE FREE THROWS WENT WILD

Manilla plays at Carthage Friday night. This should be a good one.

Webb and New Salem also tackled each other Friday night. The game will be played at the Webb gym, instead of the Modern Appliance gym in this city, because it is now occupied by another business and can't be used as a gym. The Webb and New Salem girls also will play the curtain raiser.

Here's a Bargain For Saturday Night

The Rushville Junior high and the Homer Junior High will stage a game at the Graham Annex gym Saturday night. A curtain raiser will be played by the Washington (right) and the Rushville (left) school team, against another colored team from Franklin. The bargain is, that the entire evening can be spent for only a thin dime.

Maybe They Will Be The Bean Shooters

The fire at the Washington school a few weeks ago did one good thing. In remodeling it, the upper portion is to be a gym for the colored boys, and Prof. Bean will no doubt produce some real stuff with the fellows.

Lebanon plays over at Connersville Friday night. The pace that Lebanon has been setting this year will not cause much worry across the way.

The biggest worry in these parts Friday is the one that Shelbyville has. Their worry is Martinsville.

Rushville seconds are without a game this week end. They played their two games last week.

Lester Pearsey is a newcomer to high school. Lester moved in from Westport this week, and he has been playing on the team down there. He is a center or back guard. Regular Lion material, as he is about the size of Miller, the Lion's backguard. He will be given a tryout this week.

But Lester wasn't in the car when his Dad drove it in the Mill Race Sunday night, so he isn't initiated yet.

Speaking of Dads, didja know that Lowell Osborne's Dad is a honest to goodness player? He played a guard position down at Webb one night this week against an independent team. If you would look around in their barn lot, bet you would find an old hoop stuck around some place and sometime Bert and Lowell toss 'em in to practice up for the games.

That Game at Connersville

Dear Hittin' 'em:—Rushville Lions play the Connersville Bombs at Connersville, February 13, 1925. Connersville has sent 400 tickets over in advance for the game and these may now be secured from E. B. Butler, Principal of the High School. The price is 50c and are for the section of the Connersville Gymnasium in which Rushville was placed during the Sixth District Tourney.

It will be recalled that the Connersville fans were given the entire seats balcony in our gymnasium when they played here December 19 and were not asked to take end seats.

Yours, E. B. B.

STILL WANTS A GAME

That town of Mitchell, located someplace in Indiana near Vincennes and Washington, and which has defeated Bedford this season, and held Washington to close scores, is still persistent with Rushville, and wants a game here next year. Probably will have to accommodate them for one game anyway, says E. B. Butler, the fellow who is in charge of paying the bills.

A lotta towns have printed pieces lately concerning the poor gym in Rushville, which is all uncalled for. While the playing floor is not as large as some, yet the place is far from being poor, and many a school would rejoice if they had a place as good. We realize that it should be bigger, and it will be bigger as soon as team work among the fans can get started. The gym here accommodates a crowd of 1,800 people, but the playing floor is not as large as it should be. Hittin' 'ems pick of a gym is the one at Richmond, the Indoor Athletic field. It costs less than $50,000, and the possibilities are unlimited, because indoor games can be played in it the year around. For instance, there is tennis, track practice, football practice and other events which can be carried on in case of bad weather. The sky is the limit, and indoor baseball is a great pastime and exercise. The dirt floor develops track and field athletes. The bleachers at the Richmond gym are portable, and also the hardwood floor where they play basketball. When emptied, the building can be used for exhibits of all kinds, including corn shows, stock shows and large community gatherings and picnics—all protected by the weather.

WE MAY BE THE LAST, BUT LET'S MAKE IT THE BEST!

Let's see Washington is 21 points better than Bloomington according to the Owensville games and then Vincennes beats the 'Bloomers' but ten points. Looks like that gives us an eleven point edge. We'll throw off one point and that leaves the ten point margin we are calling for over Vincennes. —Basketbawls, Washington.

Now We Know What Is Troubling Us

Over at Connersville, some one wrote in to Free Throws in the Free Press, asking him "What is the matter with the Rushville team? Now this fellow Free Throws is a wonder. He says: The team as a whole is good but never can rate with the state's best. Its greatest weakness is grandstanding, fore flushing, individual playing and internal troubles.

Seems as if Connersville is considerably worried to wonder what is the matter with Rushville. Maybe on Valentine's Day they will see those "internal troubles."

The White river may not be a Delaware, but Washington is going to cross it next Friday night. —Vincennes Sun.

At least four Rushville fans and families, Dr. and Mrs. Hale Pearsey and Mr. and Mrs. George Hogsett couldn't resist the temptation to see Connersville get beat and were among those present at the ceremonies Saturday night. —Markin' 'em Newcastle.

Markin' 'em also comments about greeting Ole Side Lights at the game and declares that he is a real sport. Side Lights congratulated the Newcastle team on their flashy comeback. Then Markin' 'em turns around and wonders thusly:

Wonder what became of E. Pierre Wainwright, the artist journalist and chief bologna spreader for the Connersville Free Press?

Perhaps after the raw deal E. Pierre gave some of the visitors at the Connersville tournament, he felt that he better not roam out for a while, and it may be a good thing he didn't.

YOUTHFUL FIREBUG

Anderson, Ind., Feb. 4.—Benjamin Ambros Jr., 15, youthful firebug, was sent to the reform school at Plainfield today. He confessed to setting fire to the garage at his home and then stealing his mother's purse containing $50 when the family rushed out to the fire.

Boston—Jimmy Jones of Youngstown Ohio won a 10 round decision over Bob Lowrie, Scotland. The scrap alternated between clinching and clean fighting.

Behind Winner

Creighton University has been sponsoring winning basketball quintets for the past three seasons. And this year appeared to be no exception judging from the Omaha team's record. Much of the success has been due to the pair herewith pictured namely, Art Schabinger, coach (above), and Johnny Trautman, captain and star forward (below).

Counts on Shocker to Win

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, Feb. 5.—New York's chance in the approaching American League pennant race depend largely upon the gamble the Yankee owners made in getting Urban Shocker back from the St. Louis Browns.

George Sisler and the owners of the St. Louis club insist that they got all the better of the deal when they secured Joe Bush, Gaston and another rookie pitcher from the Yankee in exchange for Shocker.

They contend that Bush has just as much good pitching in him as Shocker; that Bush will be more contended in St. Louis than Shocker was and that he will be invaluable as a utility outfielder and a pinch-hitter. Gaston, they figure, is one of the most promising young pitchers in the American League.

New York's officials, although the fans are not unanimously in agreement with them, contend that Shocker will strengthen the team and that the Yankees did not have to weaken another department to get a badly needed pitcher with experience.

Shocker is expected to win twenty games or more for the Yankees and must any trade that could bring with it the promise of twenty games is not considered by the Yankee as a dangerous gamble.

Col. Jake Ruppert, owner of the former American League champions, believes that Shocker will win at least twenty games and that many of his victories will be turned in against the pennant-contending clubs.

"For years," Ruppert said, "I have considered Shocker to be the greatest pitcher in the American League. He has done valuable work with a team that has been only fair. We all know what it is to play for years through the sweltering hot summers in St. Louis."

Shocker is regarded by Ruppert as the greatest money pitcher in baseball. "I'd like to have him in the box if we were playing for the Yankee stadium. He's that good when the most depends upon him."

Some New York fans, who are not fond of Miller Huggins, said that the Browns sneaked up from behind and clipped him when they put over a deal. Bush was very popular here and they figured that he had just as much good baseball left in him as Shocker has and that he is much better team-player than the temperamental Shocker.

Few young players have had the diversity of theatrical experience that distinguishes the career of Ian Keith, one of Corinne Griffith's leading supports in "Love's Wilderness," now at the Princess theatre.

Keith is but twenty-five years old, yet he plays roles of years far in advance of his own. He is equally at ease in the part of a juvenile leading man, but prefers the less spectacular though more artistic part of character acting.

His name is well known to the New York stage. He is a newcomer in pictures, having played as leading man to Gloria Swanson in "Her Love Story," and in Ince's "Christine of the Hungry Heart," before com-

A pleasant evening was enjoyed in dancing, an orchestra from Richmond furnishing the music.

The Commercial Club of the local high school was delightfully entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Mildred Murphy in East Fourth street. A program was given consisting of musical numbers and talks by different members of the club. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and contests.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

A Coat Dress

ORIENTAL embroidery in dull gold on king blue satin trims this coat dress of black wool, with the slanting surplice line that is so very becoming to practically every type of figure. A unique touch is added by the fringed pocket which is placed above instead of below the waistline.

TO OPEN ELKS TEMPLE AUG. 18

Valparaiso to be Mecca to Annual Convention of Indiana Lodges

Valparaiso, Ind., Feb. 4.—Indiana Elks, five thousand strong, is expected to make Valparaiso its Mecca. August 18, 19 and 20, when the Elks of this city will throw open their new $250,000 temple and receive Hoosier members of the antlered order as their guests.

The occasion will be the annual convention of the Elks of Indiana. Work is now being rushed on the new structure so that it will be completed for the convention dates.

Committees have been appointed to look after all details of arrangements, and plans call for the biggest celebration of its kind ever held in the Calumet district.

DAINTINESS KEYNOTE FOR SPRING; FLUFFY RUFFLES WILL REAPPEAR

By HEDDA HOYT
(Written for United Press)
New York, Feb. 5.—The New Year brings with it a change of fashions! And whether we like it or not, or know it or not, we have sworn off on being boyish.

Fashions are turning towards feminine lines with sheer lace frocks, ribbons, flowers and jewelry again coming into favor. In fact, the only way in which we shall remain boyish is in our figures and in our hair-cuts.

"Daintiness" is the keynote of the spring mode. Many of the newest gowns are made with the slender basque bodice and the ruffled skirt, and others of chiffons and various soft fabrics are made with dainty, lace petticoats which show through the outer material.

Gowns for matrons, while not adhering strictly to the fluffy type of skirt, have aprons, pleatings, godets, etc., which add a feminine note at the same time keeping the straight-line silhouette.

We are already noticing the change toward the feminine in millinery. The felt hat is doomed to oblivion, according to buyers returning from Paris. Smart women are refusing to buy hats which can be duplicated and sold in shops for $2 or $3 and they are demanding more individual styles. Both ribbon and flower trims will be noted as spring advances. Now with the Winter season in full sway, the trimmed felt is more popular than the plain one. Women are adding bows of ribbon as the short-brimmed backs of the tailored felts and appliqueing flat silk flowers on the crown. Crowns, by the way, are an important part of the hat this season. The newest crown trim is the little bow or bunch of flowers placed at the very top of the crown.

Among other feminine furbelows which are coming to the fore is jewelry. Earrings are popular in Paris and soon will be in the United States. Pearl necklaces are worn more today than they ever were. For evening wear as many as five or six matching necklaces and earrings also rule for evening wear.

STYLE NOTES

Among the newer colors used on the mid-season frocks for day wear are combinations of beige and black, rust, dark green and gray. For evening wear shades of reds and greens still prevail at the opera and formal functions with quite a general display of white. The newest evening shade noticed in the Fifth Avenue shops is a yellowish pink. Lettuce and emerald greens are the most conspicuous of the green shades.

The shoe with the single ankle strap is making its reappearance. The shoe itself is of simple pump shape while the strap is either finished at the side with a button or with a tiny rhinestone buckle. Some of the new satin pumps have little bows of ribbon tied at the outer side of the instep.

Recently younger girls are wearing little satin garters with lace or flower rosettes, just below the knee, with the flower or rosette placed directly in front rather than at the side.

Lace frocks worn over handsome slips of contrasting shade are popular for dressy wear, black lace over pinkish-tan chiffon is very lovely. Bows of blue and pink ribbon or flower appliques may be posed here and there on the slip and these look charming through the lace overdress. Velvet bows worn at one side of the waistline of the lace frock are new. There is a lovely soft blue velvet which is usually placed on the black lace frock when the underslip is black or peach color.

MASTER CRIMINAL IS SOUGHT

Believed Responsible for "Poison Pill" Mystery at Ohio Uni.

Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 5.—Investigation of Ohio State University's "poison pill" mystery narrowed down this afternoon for a determined search for a master criminal. "A super intellectual" with a "maudlin desire to broadcast death regardless of the identity of his victims is now believed responsible for the strychnine adulteration of dispensary drugs.

A discovery of 300 grains of the dead poison in an open shelf in the school of pharmacy today only strengthened the belief of John Chester, police prosecutor, that when the mystery eventually is solved a "keen but twisted intellect" will be revealed at its root.

M. W. OF A. MEETING

Thirteen delegates and thirteen alternates will be elected to represent Burr Oak Camp at the county camp meeting, to be held at Rushville, April 2, at 7:30 p. m., at the regular meeting of the camp, Thursday evening, Feb. 5, 1925, and a large attendance of the members is urged for this meeting.

Hartford City—One of the two prowlers who have held this city in a "reign of terror" for the past several weeks started following two high school girls and chased them into the Jay Palmer home. Police could not find him.

Muncie—When Horace W. Edwards, 24, of Cleveland, O., refused to talk when brought up before Judge Dearth in Circuit court on a forgery charge following a plea of guilty, he was fined $200 and given 2 to 14 years imprisonment.

Cal's Cousin

Gertrude Victoria Moore of Brattleboro, Vt., went down to Washington to see her cousin, President Coolidge. Gertrude, a stenographer in a law office in Brattleboro, was named after the president's mother, Victoria Moore. She was born near the Coolidge homestead in Plymouth, Vt. What's more, she's a sorority sister of the "first lady" as both she and Mrs. Coolidge are members of Phi Beta Phi.

LOOKING AHEAD

In Women's Footwear Fashions

We see a continuation of the plainer and tailored patterns made up in light tan; black and tan combinations; patents and satins. The trend is toward higher heels, the so-called spike heel being a leader. Box heels and low heels will continue. The plain D'Orsay pump has made a hit because of the easy fitting at the throat, over old models; Gore pumps continue; the ever popular strap pattern is with us to stay awhile; fancy and conservative patterns with cany straps. Side and center ties and bows are par excellence. Never were new shoes more beautiful.

Tells How to End Night Coughing

To quickly stop hacking, irritating coughing at night, a very simple treatment may be had that often enables you to sleep the whole night through undisturbed almost at once.

The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take a teaspoonful at night before retiring, and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it, without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and relieves irritation and soreness, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. So no matter whether your cough is dry and tight, or loose with much mucus, the coughing soon stops, you can usually sleep your accustomed time without a break, and the whole cough condition goes in a very short time.

The prescription contains absolutely no narcotics or other harmful drugs. Instead of merely numbing the throat, it actually loosens the system to throw off the trouble in a perfectly natural way. Furthermore, it is very economical, the dose being only one teaspoonful. It is highly recommended for coughs, chest colds, tickling, hoarseness and bronchitis, and is wonderful for children's coughs and spasmodic croup. On sale at all good druggists. Ask for terialism and War, Ursula Smith, as Truth; Nora Roach, love; Mary Heaton, Service; Frances Johnson, Maturity; Gertrude Johnson, Childhood; and Mary Evelyn Cook as prolocutor, were all dressed in appropriate costumes which added much to the spirit of the play and made the impression upon the audience much more effective. Those representing the foreign countries were George Hoffman, England; Harley York, Germany; Letha Williams, Japan; and Florence York, Czechoslovakia, each carrying the flag of the country represented. There were eight boys and girls representing the United States, two Harrison Carney and Olive Smith, as speakers. As the play progressed War and Materialism were driven from the stage with Truth, triumphant and occupying the throne. All bowed to truth and the pageant closed by all repeating the pledge of allegiance to the Christian flag, which was represented by Truth with upraised arms. The offering was taken up by four boys, William Norris, Richard Geise, George Hoffman and Harrison Carney.

The Women's Missionary Society will hold an all day meeting at the church Thursday with Mrs. Ona Manzy as leader of the program.
